

have shown that these organizations, each in its own field, are taking steps to establish goals and objectives consistent with those being pursued by the organs of the United Nations, in accordance with the resolutions adopted by the General Assembly and the Council,

1. Takes note with satisfaction of the report of the Committee for Development Planning and the terms of reference which that Committee adopted at its first session ;

2. Approves the programme recommended by the Committee for Development Planning ;<sup>12</sup>

3. Expresses the hope that the Committee for Development Planning, assisted by the Centre for Development Planning, Projections and Policies, and in close co-operation with the United Nations organs concerned, including the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development, and with the specialized agencies and the International Atomic Energy Agency, will intensify its work on planning with a view to :

(a) Enabling the organizations of the United Nations family to provide technical assistance to the developing countries in the preparation of suitable planning methods and in the application of their development plans ;

(b) Establishing a common framework to enable the organizations of the United Nations family to pursue coherent goals and objectives in their studies and programmes, with a view to concerted action designed to assist the developing countries in achieving the minimum targets of the United Nations Development Decade as soon as possible ;

(c) Determining the measures required to improve the elaboration of projections for the world economy, with due regard to development plans and programmes.

4 August 1966.*

1152 (XLI). United Nations Development Decade

The Economic and Social Council,

Reaffirming the solemn undertaking embodied in the Charter of the United Nations to promote economic and social progress and better standards of life in larger freedom,

Recognizing that planning on a long-term, continuing basis would contribute towards the realization of this undertaking,

Recalling General Assembly resolution 2084 (XX) of 20 December 1965 and Council resolution 1089 (XXXIX) of 31 July 1965 on the United Nations Development Decade and Council resolution 1079 (XXXIX) of 28 July 1965 on economic planning and projections,

Having considered the interim report prepared by the Secretary-General, on behalf of the Administrative Committee on Co-ordination, on the United Nations Development Decade<sup>14</sup> and the report of the Committee for Development Planning on its first session,<sup>15</sup>

Having regard to the statement by the Secretary-General to the Council on 5 July 1966,<sup>16</sup>

Noting that progress in the achievement of the goals and objectives set for the United Nations Development Decade has been disappointingly slow,

Reasserting the necessity of attaining these goals and objectives and the urgent need for energetic efforts in accordance therewith,

Considering it desirable, in addition, to look ahead to the period after the United Nations Development Decade,

1. Requests the Secretary-General to consider, in consultation with all the organizations of the United Nations family concerned and, in particular, with the assistance of the Committee for Development Planning :

(a) What preparations are required in order to further and to facilitate planning for concerted international action for the period after the Development Decade, having regard to the experience gained during this Decade ;

(b) How such planning might best reflect and might best be co-ordinated with the national development programmes of the developing countries ;

2. Invites the Secretary-General to report to the Council at its forty-third session ;

3. Invites the organizations of the United Nations family concerned to keep under critical scrutiny their programmes, practices and procedures, including inter-agency arrangements, in the light of the long-term perspective outlined in the present resolution ;

4. Decides to devote attention, as appropriate, to this question.

*1443rd plenary meeting,
4 August 1966.*

1178 (XLI). Industrialization policies, including policies for the promotion of export-oriented industries

The Economic and Social Council,

Recalling its resolution 1100 (XL) of 28 February 1966 concerning the report of the Secretary-General on the activities of the Centre for Industrial Development pursuant to the recommendations of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development,<sup>17</sup>

Bearing in mind the recommendations contained in annex A.III.3 of the Final Act of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development,<sup>18</sup> relating to the development and the establishment, in the developing countries, within the framework of their over-all development programmes, of industries with an export potential,

Considering that, in addition to import-substituting industries which can provide the developing countries with foreign exchange savings, industries with an export potential such as the metal-transforming industries, engineering industries and other branches of industries with an export potential, can provide them with new sources of foreign exchange revenue less subject to price fluctuations than their typical exports of primary products,

1. Invites the attention of the developing countries, particularly their governmental and non-governmental organizations concerned with industrialization, to the importance of according appropriate priority to the development and establishment of export-oriented industries, such as those mentioned in the Secretary-General's report, taking into consideration concurrent opportunities for import substitution that might be achieved, as one of the objectives of the diversification of their industrialization with a view to improving their balance of payments ;

2. Urges the developed countries and the appropriate international agencies, in their bilateral and multilateral financial and technical assistance programmes, to give particular attention to industries with an export potential in the developing countries and to make appropriate provisions for projects and programmes of assistance to those industries ;

3. Requests the Secretary-General to obtain appropriate information from Governments and the appropriate international agencies on the practical steps taken to achieve the objectives referred to in operative paragraphs 1 and 2 above and to report to the Industrial Development Board at its first session.

*1445th plenary meeting,
5 August 1966.*

1179 (XLI). Industrial technology

The Economic and Social Council,

Noting with satisfaction the report of the Interregional Seminar on the Production of Fertilizers,<sup>19</sup>

Considering the imperative need for developing countries to establish their own fertilizer industries to increase their agricultural and food production to an adequate level,

Noting that, despite the advanced developments in the technology of the production of low-cost fertilizers, a major obstacle in the establishment of these capital-intensive industries in the developing countries is the lack of capital available to them to augment their own resources for importing the necessary machinery and equipment,

Requests the Secretary-General to consider and propose, in co-operation with the appropriate international financial institutions, including regional development banks, the specialized agencies concerned and the International Atomic Energy Agency, practical measures for implementing the recommendations of the Interregional Seminar on the Production of Fertilizers, and to submit a report in this regard to the Industrial Development Board at its first session.

*1445th plenary meeting,
5 August 1966.*

1180 (XLI). Regional and international symposia on industrial development

The Economic and Social Council,

Recalling General Assembly resolution 1940 (XVIII) of 11 December 1963, and Economic and Social Council resolutions 1030 C (XXXVII) of 13 August 1964 and 1081 B (XXXIX) of 30 July 1965, on the holding of international and regional symposia on industrial development,

Noting with satisfaction the reports and recommendations of the regional symposia held in Manila, Cairo and Santiago, and the Symposium on Industrial Development in the Arab States held in Kuwait,<sup>20</sup>

Considering the importance of the work undertaken by the symposia and the positive contribution made thereby in the field of industrial development, and firmly convinced of the desirability of continuing such work,

Having considered the report of the Secretary-General on the agenda and the plan of organization for holding an international symposium on industrial development,<sup>21</sup>

I

1. Decides that an International Symposium on Industrial Development shall be held during 1967 ;

2. Recommends that the provisional agenda of the International Symposium contain the topics set forth in annex I to this resolution ;

3. Recommends that the proceedings of the Symposium be governed by the rules of procedure set forth in annex II to this resolution ;

4. Reaffirms its request to the Secretary-General to complete the preparations required for holding the International Symposium, including the preparation of appropriate documentation ;

5. Reaffirms its invitation to Governments of States Members of the United Nations or members of the specialized agencies and the International Atomic Energy Agency, and to the specialized agencies, the International Atomic Energy Agency, the regional economic commissions and the United Nations Economic and Social Office in Beirut, to co-operate in the preparatory work for the Symposium ;

6. Recommends that Governments establish appropriate national machinery to prepare for their participation in the Symposium, and urges them to ensure their effective participation at the meeting ;

II

1. Recognizes the importance of the reports and recommendations adopted by the symposia, and commends them to the attention of Governments of States Members of the United Nations, or members of the specialized agencies and the International Atomic Energy Agency, and to the attention of the Secretary-General
