The Economic and Social Council

Recommends to the General Assembly the adoption of the following draft resolution:

“The General Assembly,

“Recalling its resolution 2331 (XXII) of 18 December 1967 on measures to be taken against nazism and racial intolerance,

“Reaffirming that nazism and the ideology and policy of apartheid, which is similar to it, are incompatible with the objectives of the Charter of the United Nations, the Universal Declaration of

“Expressing its deep concern at the fact that, in spite of General Assembly resolution 2331 (XXII), the activities of groups and organizations propagating nazism and similar ideologies still continue,

“Bearing in mind that such ideologies have in the past led to barbarous acts which outraged the conscience of mankind and to other heinous violations of human rights, and eventually to a war which brought indescribable suffering to mankind,

“Recalling that the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the two International Covenants on Human Rights<sup>87</sup> stipulate that nothing in those instruments may be interpreted as implying for any State, group or person any right to engage in any activity or to perform any act such as racist or nazi practices and similar ideologies aimed at the destruction of any of the rights set forth therein,

“1. Once again resolutely condemns nazism, racism, apartheid, and all similar ideologies and practices which are based on racial intolerance and terror as a gross violation of human rights and fundamental freedoms and of the principles of the Charter of the United Nations, and as a threat to world peace and the security of peoples;

“2. Urgently calls upon all States to take without delay, with due regard to the principles contained in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, legislative and other positive measures to outlaw groups and organizations which are disseminating propaganda for nazism, the policy of apartheid and other forms of racial intolerance, and to prosecute them in the courts;

“3. Calls upon all States and peoples, as well as national and international organizations, to strive for the eradication, as soon as possible and once and for all, of nazi and similar ideologies and practices, including apartheid, which are based on racial intolerance and terror;

“4. Requests the Secretary-General to submit to the General Assembly a survey of information which may be available to him on international instruments, legislation, and other measures taken or envisaged, both at the national and international levels, with a view to halting nazi activities and similar activities, such as apartheid;

“5. Invites States Members of the United Nations and members of the specialized agencies to co-operate with the Secretary-General by providing him with information of this kind;

“6. Decides to consider this question at its twenty-fourth session.”
