

1377 (XLV). Proposed amendment to the rules of procedure of the Economic Commission for Africa

The Economic and Social Council,

Recalling its resolution 1281 (XLIII) of 4 August 1967 concerning, inter alia, the improvement of procedures for inter-agency consultations on new proposals coming before the Council and its subsidiary organs,

Recommends to the Economic Commission for Africa that it amend its rules of procedure in the following manner:

(a) Insert a new rule 73, as follows:

“ Rule 73

“ 1. Where an item proposed for the provisional agenda for a session contains a proposal for new activities to be undertaken by the United Nations relating to matters which are of direct concern to one or more specialized agencies or the International Atomic Energy Agency, the Executive Secretary shall enter into consultation with the agency or agencies concerned and report to the Commission on the means of achieving co-ordinated use of the resources of the respective agencies.

“ 2. Where a proposal put forward in the course of a meeting for new activities to be undertaken by the United Nations relates to matters which are of direct concern to one or more specialized agencies or the International Atomic Energy Agency, the Executive Secretary shall, after such consultation as may be possible with the representatives at the meeting of the other agency or agencies concerned, draw the attention of the meeting to these implications of the proposal.

“ 3. Before deciding on proposals referred to above, the Commission shall satisfy itself that adequate consultations have taken place with the agencies concerned.”

(b) Renumber the following rules accordingly.

*1561st plenary meeting,
2 August 1968.*

1378 (XLV). Long-range planning

The Economic and Social Council,

Recalling the recommendations of the Ad Hoc Committee of Experts to Examine the Finances of the United Nations and the Specialized Agencies regarding the need for long-term planning,<sup>76</sup> and resolution 1264 (XLIII) of 3 August 1967 by which the Council, inter alia, requested its subsidiary bodies to draw up, with the assistance of the appropriate secretariat units, long-range programmes of work containing clear indications of priorities among the various projects,

Noting with approval the emphasis placed by the Committee for Programme and Co-ordination on the need for developing procedures for co-ordination in the planning stages in addition to the existing procedures which relate largely to the implementation stages of projects,

1. Endorses the plans of the Committee for Programme and Co-ordination to assist the Council and the General Assembly in the establishment of priorities within the United Nations and the formulation of programmes clearly responsive to such priorities as specified in paragraphs 8-17 of the report of the Committee for Programme and Co-ordination on its second session;<sup>77</sup>

2. Calls for renewed efforts by the United Nations for better co-ordination in planning to ensure that reports concerned with projections be based, to the extent practicable, on the same general assumptions and common methodology, cover the same periods, and use the same statistical data, and that such arrangements be made as early as possible so as to provide the United Nations system with a comprehensive basis on which to formulate the plans and programmes for the second United Nations Development Decade;

3. Believes that the implementation of these measures will effectively promote long-term planning, the setting of priorities, and the formulation of effective work programmes responsive to these priorities and thus make for optimum use of available and anticipated resources;

4. Believes further that these improvements in the setting of priorities and the formulation of work programmes will help to define more clearly the objectives of specific programmes and projects essential for the evaluation of the performance and achievements of the United Nations and its related organizations in the economic, social and related fields.

*1561st plenary meeting,
2 August 1968.*

1379 (XLV). Summary records of meetings of subsidiary organs of the Council

The Economic and Social Council,

Bearing in mind the recommendations of the Ad Hoc Committee of Experts to Examine the Finances of the United Nations and the Specialized Agencies,<sup>78</sup>

Considering the unanimous desire of Member States to reduce both the weight of documentation and the expense of it in the United Nations system,

1. Welcomes the action of the Statistical Commission, the Commission on Narcotic Drugs and the Committee for Development Planning which have decided, in response to General Assembly resolution 2292 (XXII) of 8 December 1967 and to Council resolution 1264 (XLIII) of 3 August 1967, to dispense with summary records of their meetings;

2. Requests those of its subsidiary organs which have not yet done so, to consider at their next sessions dis-
