1187 (XLI). Composition of the Committee for Programme and Co-ordination

The Economic and Social Council,

Recalling its resolutions 1090 G and 1093 (XXXIX) of 31 July 1965 in which it revised the composition of its Special Committee on Co-ordination and gave it important new functions,

Recalling also its resolution 1171 (XLI) of 5 August 1966 in which it changed the name of that Committee to "Committee for Programme and Co-ordination" in order better to reflect its dual responsibility for United Nations programme review and inter-agency co-ordination,

Bearing in mind General Assembly resolution 2150 (XXI) of 4 November 1966, approving the report of the Ad Hoc Committee of Experts to Examine the Finances of the United Nations and the Specialized Agencies,<sup>7</sup> and urging that Member States and the United Nations organs and related bodies give the most attentive consideration to the recommendations and comments contained therein,

1. Decides that the Committee for Programme and Co-ordination shall be composed of sixteen States Members of the United Nations to be elected for a period of three years on a rotational basis and on the basis of equitable geographical distribution, as follows:

- Four from Western European and other States;
- Two from Socialist States of Eastern Europe;
- Three from Asian States;
- Four from African States;
- Three from Latin American States;

2. Urges Member States wishing to take part in the work of this Committee to notify the Secretary-General as soon as possible and not later than 15 December 1966;

3. Requests each of such Member States to indicate the government expert whom it would designate to serve on the Committee, together with his curriculum vitae, giving due consideration to the recommendation of the Ad Hoc Committee of Experts to Examine the Finances of the United Nations and the Specialized Agencies<sup>8</sup> that the government experts should have a high degree of experience and competence in:

- (a) The United Nations and related organizations in the economic, financial and social areas;
- (b) The governing bodies of the specialized agencies and subsidiary bodies of the United Nations;

Any alternates to such experts should also have knowledge of the work of the United Nations, the specialized agencies, the International Atomic Energy Agency and other bodies of the United Nations;

4. Decides to elect the members of the Committee at its meetings in December 1966;

5. Invites the Chairman of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions to continue to take part in the work of the Committee;

6. Requests the Committee, in addition to performing the functions already assigned to it, to study the present procedures for inter-agency co-operation and co-ordination;

7. Invites the Governments of Member States, the Secretary-General of the United Nations, the executive heads of the specialized agencies, the International Atomic Energy Agency, the United Nations Development Programme, the United Nations Children's Fund, the World Food Programme, and all other autonomous organizations and research institutions within the United Nations family to extend to the Committee full co-operation and assistance;

8. Confirms its decision, in resolution 1171 (XLI) of 5 August 1966, to continue the practice of having joint meetings of the Committee for Programme and Co-ordination and the Administrative Committee on Co-ordination, at which Committee members might be represented by the heads of their delegations, and invites the President and Vice-Presidents of the Council and the Chairman of the Co-ordination Committee to continue to take part in these joint meetings.

At its 1454th meeting, held on 17 December 1966, the Council, in pursuance of paragraph 4 of the above resolution, elected the sixteen members of the Committee for Programme and Co-ordination, and by its resolution 1190 (XLI) of 19 December 1966 it decided that their term of office would be for three years ending on 31 December 1969.

The Committee for Programme and Co-ordination will be composed of the following Member States: ALGERIA, BRAZIL, CAMEROON, CANADA, ECUADOR, FRANCE, GHANA, INDIA, PAKISTAN, PHILIPPINES, ROMANIA, UNION OF SOVIET SOCIALIST REPUBLICS, UNITED KINGDOM OF GREAT BRITAIN AND NORTHERN IRELAND, UNITED REPUBLIC OF TANZANIA, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA and VENEZUELA.<sup>9</sup>

1189 (XLI). Composition of the enlarged Committee for Programme and Co-ordination

The Economic and Social Council,

Recalling its resolution 1187 (XLI) of 17 November 1966, in which it decided that its Committee for Programme and Co-ordination should be composed of sixteen States Members of the United Nations to be elected for a period of three years on a rotational basis and on the basis of equitable geographical distribution,

Taking note of General Assembly resolution 2188 (XXI) of 13 December 1966, in which the Assembly requests the Council, for the purpose of undertaking certain tasks set forth in paragraph 2 of that resolution, to enlarge its Committee for Programme and Co-ordination by five additional Member States, to be designated by the President of the General Assembly for a period not exceeding three years and with due regard to equitable geographical distribution,

1. Decides that the Committee for Programme and Co-ordination composed of sixteen members shall carry out the various tasks assigned to it by the Council in the field of programme review and co-ordination in
