

(XLIII) for the planning, approval and implementation of the programme beginning with the year 1971:

(a) The Governing Council shall review the Administrator's assessment of the priority for regional and interregional projects and determine each year a single global target for the following year and authorize earmarkings for the current year corresponding to the global amount available for regional and interregional projects;

(b) The Governing Council shall fix the limit within which the Administrator is authorized to review and approve regional and interregional projects or their extension if the anticipated cumulative cost of the project including its eventual extension is within the limit fixed by the Council; this authorization shall be in force with immediate effect;

(c) The Governing Council shall review and approve regional and interregional projects or the extension of such projects recommended by the Administrator after consultation with the Inter-Agency Consultative Board, if the anticipated cumulative cost of the project including its eventual extension is over the limit fixed by the Governing Council;

(d) Savings accruing on regional and interregional projects during the course of the operational year and any balance of the amount earmarked by the Governing Council remaining unprogrammed at the end of the programme year should be surrendered to the central Technical Assistance account and added to the general resources available for the Technical Assistance programme for the ensuing year;

2. Recommends to the General Assembly the adoption of the following draft resolution:

"The General Assembly,

"Having considered the report of the Governing Council of the United Nations Development Programme on its eighth session³⁹ and Economic and Social Council resolution 1432 (XLVII) of 25 July 1969 concerning the revised programming procedures for regional and interregional projects for the Technical Assistance component of the Programme,

"Recalling its resolution 2279 (XXII) of 4 December 1967 concerning the new programming procedures for the Technical Assistance component of the Programme,

"Approves the procedures recommended by the Governing Council of the United Nations Development Programme for regional and interregional projects under the Technical Assistance component of the Programme beginning with the year 1971."³⁸

seventh session with respect to the United Nations regular programme of technical co-operation,⁴⁰

Recommends to the General Assembly that it adopt at its twenty-fourth session the following programming and budgetary procedures for Part V (Technical programmes) of the United Nations budget by which:

(a) The Secretary-General would frame his annual budget estimates for Part V taking into account the expressed needs of the developing countries and regions together with the recommendations of the various programme-formulating bodies of the United Nations, including the Governing Council of the United Nations Development Programme and the Industrial Development Board;

(b) The current system of separate section appropriations requested under Part V would be replaced by chapters reflecting targets to be applied to the major fields of activity: economic development, industrial development, social development, public administration, human rights advisory services and narcotic drugs control;

(c) The Secretary-General would approve individual projects based on government requests to be financed under the regular programme;

(d) Annual reports on the programme and projects implemented would be submitted as appropriate to the Governing Council of the United Nations Development Programme and to the Industrial Development Board.

1435 (XLVII). United Nations programmes of technical co-operation

The Economic and Social Council,

Having considered the report of the Governing Council of the United Nations Development Programme on its eighth session,⁴¹ including chapter IX thereof dealing with the United Nations programmes of technical co-operation,

Noting that the Governing Council has approved the 1970 regular programme contained in the report of the Secretary-General⁴² and has recommended $5,408,600 to be appropriated by the General Assembly,

Noting further the action taken by the Industrial Development Board at its third session to recommend that the General Assembly appropriate the sum of $1.5 million in respect of a separate section for industrial development under Part V of the United Nations budget,⁴³

1. Endorses the action of the Governing Council of the United Nations Development Programme noted above:
