1471 (XLVII). The establishment of an intergovernmental tourism organization

The Economic and Social Council,

Recalling its resolution 1449 (XLVII) of 7 August 1969 on the development of tourism,

Having considered the report of the Secretary-General on the constitutional, organizational and financial implications of the establishment of an intergovernmental tourism organization,¹³

Recommends the General Assembly to adopt the following draft resolution:

"The General Assembly,

"Having considered the note by the Secretary-General,¹⁴ transmitting the report of the Intergovernmental Conference on Tourism held at Sofia in May 1969, and the resolution adopted at that Conference on the creation of an intergovernmental tourism organization,

"Having also considered the report of the Secretary-General¹⁵ called for in Economic and Social Council resolution 1449 (XLVII) of 7 August 1969,

"Taking into account resolution XXI/5 of November 1969 adopted by the General Assembly of the International Union of Official Travel Organizations at its twenty-first session,¹⁵ held at Dublin from 28 October to 5 November 1969 on the adaptation of the Union to its present and future responsibilities,

¹⁵ See E/4750/Add.1.

"Acknowledging the vital contribution that international tourism is making to the economic, social, cultural and educational progress of mankind and in safeguarding world peace,

"Taking into account the important role that tourism can play in the national economy, particularly in that of the developing countries,

"Considering the active interest taken by the United Nations, its organs and specialized agencies in various fields related to tourism, and the continuing need for co-ordination of their activities in these fields,

"Conscious of the leading role that the Union has hitherto played in the field of tourism and the technical ability and experience that it has built up,

"Recognizing, nevertheless, that the operational capacity of the Union in the field of tourism has been limited by its status as a non-governmental organization,

"Taking note of the determination reaffirmed by the General Assembly of the Union in its resolution XXI/5, to set up as promptly as possible and by the most appropriate means a tourism organization of an intergovernmental character,

"Further taking note that in that resolution the Union recognized that the procedure indicated by the Intergovernmental Conference on Tourism for the creation of an intergovernmental tourism organization within the United Nations does not necessarily constitute the only means of establishing the best organization for world tourism,

"1. Believes that a formula that would allow agreement to be reached more readily among Governments for the establishment of an international tourism organization of an intergovernmental character, particularly to assist the developing countries, would be:

"(a) The conversion of the International Union of Official Travel Organizations into an intergovernmental organization through a revision of its statutes;

"(b) The establishment of operational links between the United Nations and the transformed Union by means of a formal agreement;

"2. Takes note of the recommendation contained in resolution XXI/5 of the General Assembly of the International Union of Official Travel Organizations, requesting the President of the Union to entrust a working group with the preparation of its draft revised statutes, bearing in mind the principles laid down by the General Assembly of the Union at its twentieth session held in Tokyo in October 1967 and by the Intergovernmental Conference on Tourism held at Sofia in May 1969, and to convene an extraordinary General Assembly of the Union to draw up and adopt the statutes of an intergovernmental organization;

"3. Recommends those States whose national official tourist organizations are members of the Union to take joint action at its forthcoming extraordinary General Assembly to amend the statutes of the Union in order to give the organization an intergovernmental character;

"4. Invites States whose national official tourist organizations are members of the Union to approve and adopt, in accordance with their respective internal procedures, the procedure outlined in paragraph 3
