1445 (XLVII). Report of the Executive Board of the United Nations Children's Fund

The Economic and Social Council,

Having considered the report of the Executive Board of the United Nations Children's Fund on its session held at Santiago, Chile, in May 1969,⁷⁸

Recognizing the important role that the Fund is in a position to play in helping to achieve the objectives of the Second United Nations Development Decade, having regard to the contribution that the present generation of children and young people must make towards the future achievement of the economic, social and cultural progress of the developing countries,

Welcoming the action being taken by the Fund to assist developing countries in implementing their long-term development programmes for meeting the health, nutritional, educational and social welfare needs of the hundreds of millions of children under fifteen years of age in those countries,

Commending, in this connexion, the emphasis that the Fund is placing on the "country approach", whereby aid is given in accordance with the priorities established by the developing countries concerned,

Approving the intention of the Fund to give increased attention to assisting in the promotion of integrated services for children and young people within the wider field of social and economic development on a comprehensive national or regional scale,

Noting with appreciation the close co-operation existing between the Fund and other organizations of the United Nations system, both at their respective headquarters and in the field, in the planning, implementation and evaluation of programmes and projects,

Believing that the Fund must remain alert and responsive to the emergency needs of children and mothers,

⁷⁸ Official Records of the Economic and Social Council, Forty-seventh Session, document E/4711.

Welcoming the growing support being provided by the Fund in the training of the nationals of the developing countries, thus supplying a valuable form of assistance which will contribute to the still more effective development and extension of its assisted projects,

Appreciating that the Fund would be able to meet more of the vast unsatisfied needs of children and young people if more resources were available to it,

1. Endorses the policies of the United Nations Children's Fund aiming at providing aid for countries in the protection, and in the preparation for future responsibilities, of the younger generation;

2. Appeals to Governments of States Members of the United Nations and other donors to make every effort to increase their contributions to the United Nations Children's Fund to enable it to provide the greater services which the needs of the rising generation demand.

*1627th plenary meeting,
1 August 1969.*

1449 (XLVII). Development of tourism

The Economic and Social Council,

Noting that the Intergovernmental Conference on Tourism, held at Sofia, Bulgaria, from 15 to 28 May 1969, adopted a resolution⁷⁹ which contains guidelines for the creation of an intergovernmental tourism organization,

1. Decides to defer further consideration of agenda item 17 (c) (Review of the programmes and activities of the United Nations system of organizations for the development of tourism) to its resumed forty-seventh session and to submit its conclusions thereon to the General Assembly at its twenty-fourth session;

2. Requests the Secretary-General to study the guidelines contained in the resolution adopted by the Intergovernmental Conference on Tourism, in the light of the debates on the subject and the proposals made at the forty-seventh session of the Council⁸⁰ and of his report on the review of the activities and programmes of the United Nations system of organizations for the development of tourism,⁸¹ as well as of the report of the Intergovernmental Conference on Tourism⁸² and the resolution annexed thereto, and to submit a report to the General Assembly at its twenty-fourth session, through the Council at its resumed forty-seventh session, on the constitutional, organizational and financial implications of the establishment of an intergovernmental tourism organization and on any other effective measures for the development of tourism.
