Croatia declares moratorium on the use, production, stockpiling, import and export of anti-personnel landmines, booby-traps and remotely delivered anti-personnel mines

On 19 April 1996 the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs dr. Mate Granić and the Minister of Defence Gojko Šušak have issued a joint statement announcing that the Republic of Croatia declares a moratorium on the use, production, stockpiling, import and export of anti-personnel landmines, booby-traps and remotely delivered anti-personnel mines.

With this decision the Republic of Croatia aims to strengthen its role and position in peace processes and international relations, as well as in the implementation of peace initiatives and in contributing to global efforts for disarmament, the establishment of lasting peace and building of confidence between states and peoples.
