Notes

1/ Negotiating history:

The Preparatory Commission, in recommending the draft "Protocol on the privileges and immunities of the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea" to the Meeting of States Parties, stated as follows:

"The final draft Protocol on the privileges and Immunities of the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea, formulated by the Commission and its Special Commission 4, addendum 3 hereto, should provide the basis for negotiating and entering into such a protocol.

"The Commission discussed the question of privileges, immunities and facilities in relation to the Tribunal and its work, taking into account the items listed in SCN.4/WP.1, paragraphs 3 and 5 to 7. Account was also taken of SCN.4/WP.4, which identified issues for consideration, and also SCN.4/1985/CRP.8 and 9. The summary of this review is contained in the Chairman's summary of discussions (SCN.4/L.9).

"Thereafter, a draft Protocol on the Privileges and Immunities of the International Tribunal (SCN.4/WP.6) was prepared by the Secretariat at the request of the Commission (LOS/PCN/L.53, para. 19 (c)). This working paper was reviewed article by article by the Special Commission, as reflected in the Chairman's summary of discussions (SCN.4/L.13 and Add.1).

"Subsequently, a revised draft Protocol on the Privileges and Immunities of the International Tribunal (SCN.4/WP.6/Rev.1 and Corr.1 and 2) prepared by the Secretariat, taking into account the deliberations in the Special Commission, the draft texts proposed for specific provisions (SCN.4/1988/CRP.24, 26 and 27; SCN.4/1989/CRP.31 and 33-35), and the suggestions of a drafting nature, and providing compromise texts on issues where agreement was not reached (LOS/PCN/L.91, para. 10), was considered and formulated by the Special Commission in accordance with its deliberations."

(See final Report of the Preparatory Commission (LOS/PCN/152 (vol. I), chap. II, sect. 2, p. 15.))
