I. INTRODUCTION

1. By General Assembly resolution 845 (IX) of 22 November 1954, Member States were invited to extend to the inhabitants of Non-Self-Governing Territories offers of facilities not only for study and training of university standard, but also for study at the post-primary level, as well as technical and vocational training of immediate practical value.

2. In accordance with General Assembly resolution 1696 (XVI) of 19 December 1961, offers extended under resolution 845 (IX) are communicated by the Secretariat to the administering Powers to enable them to give appropriate publicity to the offers in the Territories under their administration.

3. Information on scholarships offered by Member States under the programme is made available to prospective applicants. Reference to the programme is included in the twenty-ninth edition of the handbook entitled Study Abroad (1995/1996), published by the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO).

4. Under the terms of General Assembly resolution 845 (IX) and subsequent resolutions, 1/ the Secretary-General submits to the Assembly each year a report containing detailed information on the offers made and the extent to which they were utilized. 2/ The present report, which covers the period from 1 October 1995 to 30 September 1996, is submitted in accordance with paragraph 5 of resolution 50/35 of 6 December 1995.

B. Offers and awards

United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland

7. In a note verbale dated 28 August 1996, the Permanent Representative of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland to the United Nations informed the Secretary-General that during the financial year 1995/96 the United Kingdom had offered 64 scholarships to students from the British Non-Self-Governing Territories as follows: Anguilla (5); Bermuda (20); British Virgin Islands (5); Cayman Islands (8); Falkland Islands (Malvinas) (2); Gibraltar (2); Montserrat (3); Saint Helena (including Tristan da Cunha) (18); and Turks and Caicos Islands (1).

Austria

8. In a note verbale dated 5 September 1996, the Permanent Mission of Austria to the United Nations informed the Secretary-General that the Austrian Development Cooperation Programme regularly provided vocational training and capacity-building in the infrastructure and education sectors for inhabitants of Western Sahara. Furthermore, specific assistance was being provided on a regular basis for the training of kindergarten teachers from that Territory.
