RIGHTS INSTRUMENTS

Status of the Convention against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment

Report of the Secretary-General

1. The General Assembly, by its resolution 39/46 of 10 December 1984, adopted and opened for signature, ratification and accession the Convention against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment, contained in the annex to that resolution, and called upon all Governments to consider signing and ratifying the Convention as a matter of priority.
2. The Convention was opened for signature in New York on 4 February 1985. In accordance with article 27 thereof, the Convention entered into force on 26 June 1987, on the thirtieth day after the date of the deposit with the Secretary-General of the twentieth instrument of ratification or accession.
3. In its resolution 49/177 of 23 December 1994, the General Assembly commended the Committee against Torture for its excellent report 1/ in its modified presentation and for the improvement in its working methods; emphasized the importance of the strictest compliance by States parties with their obligations under the Convention; and urged all States parties to the Convention to notify the Secretary-General of their acceptance of the amendments to articles 17 and 18 of the Convention as soon as possible. 2/ Further, the Assembly welcomed the attention that the Committee had given to the development of an effective system of reporting on the implementation of the Convention by States parties, and especially its revision of its general guidelines for the submission of reports by States parties, as well as its practice of formulating concluding observations after the consideration of such reports. The Assembly welcomed also the continuing close contacts and exchange of information, reports and documents between the Committee against Torture and the Special Rapporteur of the Commission on Human Rights on questions relating to torture; requested the Secretary-General to ensure the provision of appropriate staff and facilities for the effective performance of the functions of the Committee; urged all States that had not yet done so to become parties to the Convention as a matter of priority; invited all States ratifying or acceding to the Convention and those States parties which had not yet done so to make the declarations provided for in articles 21 and 22 of the Convention and to consider the possibility of withdrawing their reservations to article 20; and requested the Secretary-General to submit to the General Assembly at its fifty-first session a report on the status of the Convention.

4. The Commission on Human rights, at its fifty-second session, adopted resolution 1996/33 A of 19 April 1996, in which it welcomed the Committee's practice of carrying out inquiries into cases where there were indications of the systematic practice of torture in States parties; reminded all States that paragraph 60 of the Vienna Declaration and Programme of Action read: "States should abrogate legislation leading to impunity for those responsible for grave violations of human rights such as torture and prosecute such violations, thereby providing a firm basis for the rule of law"; emphasized the obligation of States parties under article 10 of the Convention to ensure education and training for personnel who might be involved in the custody, interrogation or treatment of any individual subjected to any form of arrest, detention or imprisonment, and called upon the High Commissioner for Human Rights, in conformity with his mandate established in General Assembly resolution 48/141 of 20 December 1993, to provide, at the request of Governments, advisory services in that regard, as well as technical assistance in the development, production and distribution of appropriate teaching material for the purpose.
