The Security Council resumed its consideration of the item at its 1907th meeting, held on 6 April 1976, on the basis of the special report of the Security Council Committee established in pursuance of resolution 253 (1968) concerning the question of Southern Rhodesia on the expansion of sanctions against Southern Rhodesia (S/11913).

The President drew attention to a draft resolution (S/12037) sponsored by Benin, China, France, Guyana, Italy, Japan, the Libyan Arab Republic, Pakistan, Panama, Romania, Sweden, the USSR, the United Kingdom, the United Republic of Tanzania and the United States, which had been elaborated in the course of consultations among all the members of the Council.

The 15-Power draft resolution (S/12037) was adopted unanimously by the Council as resolution 388 (1976). In its operative part it reads as follows:

- "1. Decides that all Member States shall take appropriate measures to ensure that their nationals and persons in their territories do not insure:

(b) Any commodities or products which they know or have reasonable cause to believe are destined or intended for importation into Southern Rhodesia after the date of this resolution in contravention of resolution 253 (1968);
