LEBANON TO THE UNITED NATIONS ADDRESSED TO THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

The Permanent Representative of Lebanon to the United Nations presents his compliments to the Secretary-General and, with reference to his note dated 29 March 1978 relative to Security Council resolution 418 (1977) concerning the question of South Africa, which was adopted unanimously on 4 November 1977, has the honour to inform him that Lebanon does not maintain with South Africa any of the relations referred to in resolution 418 (1977) and intends to observe fully the provisions of that resolution.

The Permanent Representative of Lebanon would be grateful if the Secretary-General could arrange for the text of this note to be circulated as a document of the Security Council.
