NOTE BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL

1. Following consultations held on 2 February 1976 with the members of the Security Council on the telegram dated 28 January 1976 from the Head of the Comorian State addressed to the President of the Security Council (S/11953), the President of the Security Council, on 2 February 1976, addressed the following telegram to the Head of the Comorian State:

"I have the honour to refer to your telegram of 28 January 1976 S/11953 requesting an urgent meeting of the Security Council. The members of the Security Council have considered your request and intend to hold a meeting of the Council at the United Nations Headquarters in New York on Wednesday, 4 February 1976, regarding that matter.

"The Government of the Comoros, as a party to the dispute under consideration, may, in accordance with the usual practice, wish to send a representative to participate in the meeting without the right to vote.

"May I ask you to inform me immediately whether you can have a representative present for the meeting on Wednesday, 4 February, and, if so, when he will arrive at New York."

2. On 4 February 1976, the President received in reply a telegram from the Head of the Comorian State, which read as follows:

"In reference to your telegram of 2 February 1976 I have the honour to confirm our telephone conversation of today concerning the meeting scheduled for Thursday. I wish to inform you of the arrival of Doctor Sherif Sayyid Omar Mwinyi Baraka, Ambassador Plenipotentiary, who has been designated to represent the Comorian State at the Security Council. He will be accompanied by Mr. Sultan Chouzour, a senior Comorian official. The designated representative is arriving in New York on 4 February on flight BA 501 from London at 13.35 p.m. Please advise the United States authorities to facilitate visas and entry."
