ECONOMIC COMMISSION FOR EUROPE

Fifty-first session
(Provisional Agenda item 6)

PROGRAMME OF WORK FOR 1996-2000

Note by the Executive Secretary

1. The draft programme of work of the Commission for 1996-2000 is submitted (in Annex I) for the Commission's consideration and approval pursuant to operative paragraph 5(a) of its resolution 5 (XXIV).
2. The amendments to the programme of work approved by the Commission at its fifty-first session will be incorporated by the secretariat in the text which will appear as Annex IV to the Commission's Annual Report to the Economic and Social Council.
3. In the case of the programme of work of the Commission itself (programme category 00), a draft has been prepared containing detailed descriptions of the programme elements, since this programme category is subject to review by the Commission at its annual session (Annex II). In certain cases these descriptions will have to be completed by the Executive Secretary after the fifty-first session of the Commission in order to reflect the relevant resolutions and other decisions which will be adopted at that session. Such programme elements are annotated: "To be completed as may be necessary".
4. In the framework of the procedures for prior consultation with the organizations of the United Nations system pursuant to Council resolution 1549 (XLIX), and in order to avoid any unnecessary duplication of work, the Executive Secretary has offered his comments, as in the past, to the executive heads of those organizations which have transmitted to him their programmes of work. An account of the cooperation which has taken place during the past year between the ECE and the specialized agencies and other international organizations and institutions is given in the Executive Secretary's note E/ECE/1334.

Description: At its annual sessions the Commission will review economic developments, problems and prospects in the ECE region.

Work accomplished and to be undertaken: In response to Commission decisions O (45) and B (46), particular emphasis is given to the analysis of the transition economies and related policy issues. This is reflected in the annual Economic Survey of Europe and the Economic Bulletin for Europe, both of which contain an increased coverage of economic and policy developments in the transition economies. Both the Survey and the Bulletin, as well as other special studies and statistical bulletins prepared and published by the secretariat, are made available to the Commission for this annual review. In its decision B (46), the Commission invited the Senior Economic Advisers and the secretariat, in accordance with the relevant provisions of decision O (45) and having in mind the right and responsibility of the secretariat to exercise independent judgement in its analysis, to deepen their consultations in order to achieve the highest quality of the Survey, notably by improving pre-publication exchange of views; and stressed the need for this Survey to be published in time to enable it to be properly studied and reflected upon during the annual session (paragraph 8).

Duration: Continuing

05.4.2 Population

Description: The Executive Secretary carries out work in the field of population, within existing resources, and maintains collaboration with the United Nations Population Fund (UNFPA) for the implementation of the relevant recommendations of regional meetings of experts on population convened periodically, but not more than every two years, in cooperation with UNFPA. These meetings aim to provide consultations amongst Governments and the dissemination and exchange of information on population problems and policies in the ECE region. The most recent intergovernmental European Population Conference (Geneva, March 1993) provided an elaborate set of recommendations.

Work accomplished: Collaboration with UNFPA is maintained through projects dealing, respectively, with population trends in the countries with economies in transition, economic and social implications of aging, international migration, and promotion of fertility and family surveys in the ECE region. Funding for these projects is provided by UNFPA.

Work to be undertaken: Follow-up to the World Conference in 1994, in cooperation and collaboration with the other relevant organizations, as well as the continuation of ongoing activities as described.

Duration: Continuing.

ANNEX II

SUB-PROGRAMME 00 - POLICY AND COORDINATION OF THE WORK OF THE COMMISSION AS A WHOLE

Authority: Terms of reference of the Commission; relevant resolutions and other decisions of the Economic and Social Council and the Commission.

PROGRAMME ACTIVITY 00.1: ACTIVITIES OF THE COMMISSION AS A WHOLE AND PROGRAMME OF WORK AND PRIORITIES

00.1.1 Review and guidance of the activities of the Commission as a whole:
evaluation, coordination and formulation of the programme of work

Description: At its annual sessions the Commission will consider its work as a whole; review and evaluate its own activity as well as that of its subsidiary bodies; guide the policy orientation, coordination and planning of the work carried out by the subsidiary bodies under its auspices; and formulate and approve its programme of work.

Work accomplished and to be undertaken: At its annual sessions the Commission considers the reports of its subsidiary bodies on their work and the Executive Secretary's reports on the implementation of its relevant resolutions and decisions. The Commission considers and approves annually its programme of work for the following year and endorses in principle, subject to review at the following session, its long-term programme of work covering the next five years. The policy guidance given by the Commission, including measures for coordination, is embodied in its decisions to be implemented, as appropriate, by member Governments, by the Commission's subsidiary bodies and by its secretariat.

Duration: Continuing.

00.1.2 The work of the Commission as a whole and its future activities

Description: In its decision O (45) the Commission decided on the following priority areas of activity: environment, transport, statistics, trade facilitation, and economic analysis. It also decided on practical measures in these priority areas and on the broad outlines of work in sectors not identified as priorities in order to promote the process of economic reform and integrate the economies in transition into the global economy. The Commission further agreed on a series of measures on the methods of work, the structure and the resources of the Commission. It recalled in decision A (46) that in accordance with decision O (45) account should be taken of the impact that ECE activities in sectors not identified as priorities, such as energy, have on priority sectors.

Work accomplished: The priorities as designated in decision O (45) were incorporated in the revised Medium-term Plan for 1992-1997 and in the draft budget proposals of the biennia 1994-1995 and 1996-1997. The provisions of decision A (46) have been implemented primarily through the redeployment of human and financial resources from programme areas not designated as priorities to the five designated priority areas.

Work to be undertaken: The Commission, taking note of the Executive Secretary's note (E/ECE/1342) on the implications of resolutions of the General Assembly and of ECOSOC for the work of the ECE, requested the Executive Secretary to bring the work of the Commission to the attention of the Secretary-General to assist him in the preparation of the reports which he is required to submit to the Assembly and invited its subsidiary bodies to consider possible work within their competence and ongoing activities which could contribute to the implementation of General Assembly resolutions and to study possible action to contribute to global programmes of the United Nations including forthcoming or recent global Conferences or international years, in particular the Fourth World Conference on Women, the Rio Conference and Habitat II.

[To be completed as may be necessary]

Duration: One year (1996/1997)

00.1.3 Commission activities designed to assist countries of the region in transition to a market economy and their integration with the European and global economy, including facilitating access to markets for countries in transition

Description: Taking into account the fact that the recent and current developments in central and eastern Europe modify the characteristics and functioning of the societies and economies of countries of the region, the Commission, in its decisions D (45), B (46), D (47), B (48), B (49) and B (50), considered that in view of its composition and the nature of the cooperation which it implements it had a role to play in assisting the transition to market economies.

In its decision O (45) the Commission noted that work in its five priority sectors contributed significantly to promoting reform and integration or reintegration of the economies in transition with the economies of the ECE region and therefore with the global economy. In order to promote the process of economic reform, it decided on broad outlines of work in sectors not identified as priorities, and determined that the primary work methods employed to address transition issues should be workshops and other similar informal fora.

Work accomplished: The Commission has continued to organize activities to assist the countries of the region which are in transition to a market economy. In particular the ECE programme of workshops has produced some 190 workshops. Through the Trust Fund for Assistance to Countries in Transition (TFACT) the Commission has provided financial assistance to the countries in transition for their participation in the ECE programme of workshops and in conventions, although these funds cannot be used for regular meetings of ECE subsidiary bodies. The Principal Subsidiary Bodies reviewed their programmes and methods of work to permit a rapid and effective response to the needs of the economies in transition. These activities were carried out in close collaboration with the international, intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations, in particular those identified in decisions D (45), O (45) and B (46).

In response to paragraph 7 of decision B (48) and as a result of measures taken by the Secretary-General to promote decentralization of the Organization's activities in the economic and social sectors, ECE launched in the course of 1994 a programme of regional advisory services designed to foster further economic development within the region (see E/ECE/1328 and E/ECE/1329).

Work to be undertaken: The ECE programme of workshops has developed further, with more than 40 on the provisional programme of future workshops.

Member Governments, the European Union and competent international institutions will continue to be invited to participate actively in transition-related activities, and encouraged to provide continued financial assistance, on a bilateral or multilateral basis, for promoting such activities. The Principal Subsidiary Bodies will continue to contribute within their competence to the preparation of practical workshops especially on transition issues. The Executive Secretary will continue to facilitate consultations with interested countries and international institutions in order to provide expertise in the areas of competence of the Commission in response to requests from interested member countries. (See also sub-programme 05)

The Executive Secretary has finalized (E/ECE/1328/Add.1) the list of experts and specialists in the problems of privatization and of transition of different economic sectors to market conditions, whose services could be offered to interested countries in transition, providing advisory services in the areas mentioned in paragraph 32 of the report E/ECE/1287 and is exploring the possibility of providing information on training courses available to representatives of the business community of countries in transition.

The Executive Secretary in consultation with the UNDP, EBRD, OECD, the World Bank and other institutions and organizations has explored the possibility of establishing in one of the interested countries in transition, and with financial support of these organizations and institutions, training courses in matters of market economy for representatives of administration and business community of the countries in transition.

The Executive Secretary has also, in consultation with UNDP, EBRD and the World Bank, studied the feasibility of their cooperation with ECE in data collection and data sharing on foreign direct investment projects in the countries in transition.

00.1.4 Activities of the Economic Commission for Europe to implement the pertinent provisions of the Final Act of the Conference on Security and Cooperation in Europe (CSCE) and other CSCE/OSCE documents, including the Charter of Paris for a New Europe, the Helsinki

Document 1992 and the Budapest Document 1994, as well as economic cooperation in the Mediterranean in the light of the Final Act of the CSCE

Description: The ECE secretariat cooperates with the OSCE in the economic dimension, as called for in the Final Act of the CSCE, the Charter of Paris for a New Europe, documents of the Bonn Conference on Economic Cooperation, the Helsinki Document (1992) and the Budapest Document 1994, notably in the areas of the environment, statistics, international trade and industry and technology.

The ECE/OSCE relationship was given a new impetus by the Budapest Document 1994, which not only reaffirmed the earlier CSCE documents but called for the strengthening of cooperation with ECE and other international organizations and institutions to support the transition processes, regional cooperation and environmental responsibility, in support of the OSCE's economic dimension priorities. The relevant ECE Principal Subsidiary Bodies pay particular attention to the topics selected for discussion at the annual Economic Forum.

The Commission and its Principal Subsidiary Bodies also give particular attention to projects and activities of interest to the Mediterranean countries of the ECE region, bearing in mind the relevant provisions of the Final Act and other Concluding Documents of the CSCE. The Commission's subsidiary bodies identify areas of interest, particularly in the field of trade, transport, environment, and industry and technology, for economic cooperation in the Mediterranean within the framework of over-all ECE activities and the Commission's programme of work. The Executive Secretary cooperates with the relevant United Nations bodies and has been actively pursuing contacts with all Mediterranean countries not members of the Commission, on subjects within the competence of the ECE of common interest to the Mediterranean countries. (See document E/ECE/1333)

Work accomplished: With respect to cooperation with the OSCE, the secretariat has participated in all relevant meetings of the OSCE notably, since the fiftieth session, the third Economic Forum in June 1995 and the OSCE Review Conference in Geneva in January 1996, and will participate in the Fourth Economic Forum in Prague in March 1996. For the first two meetings, ECE provided a Moderator and Rapporteur, and will do so for the latter meeting. It has prepared documents for these three events on the basis of the work of the Commission. OSCE has been kept fully informed of ECE activities in order to avoid duplication of functions and has been invited to play an active role in the Budapest Summit follow-up and in the Economic Forum preparation and follow-up as called for in the Budapest Document 1994. It has contributed to two workshops organized under the auspices of the OSCE, one on the role of Trans-European infrastructure for stability and cooperation in the Black Sea region (Sofia, November 1995) and one on rehabilitating the environment (Tashkent, October 1995); the measures taken to reduce the travel budget prevented the secretariat from participating in the latter meeting.

Work to be undertaken: The subsidiary bodies will take into account in their work the provisions of the relevant and most recent CSCE documents, in particular the concluding document of the Review Conference in Budapest, which also reaffirms the earlier documents in which ECE is named as an implementing agency. They will also contribute in the appropriate manner to the OSCE Economic Forum, whose two major topics for 1996 are managing the social aspects and political risks in transition, and building economic confidence in order to promote security. ECE is prepared to organize joint seminars on matters where it has competence and can provide expertise and experience and which at the same time avoid possible duplication with activities undertaken by other international organizations.

[To be completed as may be necessary]

Duration: Continuing.

00.1.5 Institutional arrangements for ECE

Description: In accordance with decision P (45), ad hoc informal meetings of the Commission are convened at least once every three months by the Chairperson of the Commission, with, inter alia, the following tasks: (a) to consult on policy matters concerning the activities of the Commission; (b) to assist preparations for the annual sessions of the Commission; (c) to monitor progress in the work programmes of the Commission; (d) to offer any necessary guidance to the Executive Secretary on the work of the Commission.

Work accomplished and to be undertaken: Ad hoc informal meetings have been and will continue to be convened by the Chairperson of the Commission in accordance with decision P (45). In its decision A (50) the Commission invited the Executive Secretary to explore ways and means to increase the visibility and the outside perception of the activities of the ECE and to present information to the forthcoming Ad Hoc informal meetings of the Commission.

A brochure entitled "Introduction to the Economic Commission for Europe", and informal note on "The uniqueness of ECE" and on "The UN/ECE and the business community" have been produced, as well as several press releases. The Fiftieth anniversary of the United Nations gave ECE the opportunity to participate in several conferences. Actions taken as a follow-up to decision A (50) also contributed to increasing the visibility of ECE.

Duration: Continuing.

00.1.6 The provision of adequate resources for the servicing of the priority and other sectors of the Economic Commission for Europe

Description: In its decisions E (48), A (50) and C (50), the Commission, conscious that the effective and efficient management of the ECE, like that of other UN organizations, depended upon the reliable provision of resources, both financial and human, including skilled professionals, and aware that its increased membership had expanded the ECE's activities and imposed extra demands on its tightly-stretched resources, noted with concern that unfilled vacancies at the professional level in the priority sectors and other sectors are seriously impeding both technical and practical work of importance to the member States, as well as the ability of the secretariat to respond to the growing needs of countries in transition.

Work accomplished: The Executive Secretary has regularly provided information on the deployment of resources both under the regular budget and from extra-budgetary contributions to Permanent Missions in Geneva and to the Principal Subsidiary Bodies. He has also cooperated closely with United Nations Headquarters in the filling of key vacancies in the secretariat and in the allocation of financial resources to mandated programmes. He has, as long as authorized, used vacant posts for short-term contracts in order not to deprive programme of needed resources.

The Executive Secretary urged the UN Secretary-General, in the budget submission for 1996-1997, to consider positively the possibility of future strengthening of the Commission by recommending to the General Assembly the approval of adequate human and financial resources, taking into account the areas of competence of the ECE and the needs of new member countries. The proposed programme budget finally adopted contained an increase of two posts, to take into account the increase of the membership of the Commission from 34 to 55 countries, and redeployments from non-priority to priority sectors. No increase of the Regional Advisory Services Programme was allocated in the new budget; on the contrary resources were affected by the savings requested by the General Assembly and the priority it gave to the least developed countries.

[To be completed as may be necessary]

Duration: One year (1996/1997).

00.1.7 Regional conference on transport and environment

Description: Following a feasibility study prepared by the Executive Secretary, the Commission decided in its decisions F (49) and G (49) that a Regional Conference on Transport and Environment should take place in 1996 under the auspices of the ECE.

Work accomplished: A Preparatory Committee set up at expert level, including technical and scientific expertise, has reached agreement on a text of Draft Guidelines for a Common Strategy regarding Transport and Environment and has identified a number of issues on which binding agreement could be achieved.

Work to be undertaken: Two ECE countries have expressed interest in hosting the Conference, which will either be held in Autumn 1996 or Autumn 1997.

Duration: Two years (1994-1996)

00.1.8 Commemoration of the fiftieth anniversary of the Economic Commission for Europe

Description: In its decision A (50) the Commission decided to convene its fifty-second jubilee session in 1997 at high level with the view to adopting a Declaration on strengthening of economic cooperation in Europe which would define strategic directions of future activities of the ECE reflecting new realities in the ECE region and taking into account the needs and priorities of economic development of the countries in transition as well as the budget capacity and possible recommendations of the ECE ad hoc meeting on savings.

Work accomplished and to be undertaken: The secretariat will prepare a publication intended to reflect its main contributions to the well-being of the peoples and governments of the region. Such a publication could be prepared by a team of young people serving as interns in the ECE and retired staff of the ECE who would jointly represent two different readings of the history and the future of the ECE. Senior government officials will also be invited to contribute statements and articles to the publication. On the occasion of the Commission's annual session in 1997 the round table will be devoted to a discussion of the anniversary of the ECE from both a retrospective and prospective point of view. The secretariat has already requested the UN Postal Administration to begin preparations for a UN stamp in 1997 to commemorate the Commission's fiftieth anniversary.

[To be completed as may be necessary]

Duration: Three years (1994-1997)

PROGRAMME ACTIVITY 00.2: RESOLUTIONS BEARING ON THE WORK OF THE COMMISSION ADOPTED BY THE ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL COUNCIL AND THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

00.2.1 Review and follow-up of resolutions adopted by the Economic and Social Council and the General Assembly bearing on the work of the Commission

Description: At its annual sessions, the Commission will review the resolutions and decisions of the Economic and Social Council and the General Assembly which have a bearing on its work and will decide on the action to be taken by it in the light of the provisions of those resolutions and decisions.

Work accomplished and to be undertaken: The Commission undertakes this review on the basis of the Executive Secretary's note (see document E/ECE/1342) in which he brings to the Commission's attention the resolutions and decisions bearing on the work of the Commission which were adopted by the Economic and Social Council and by the General Assembly during the period since the previous session of the Commission, and the relevant work underway, with special reference to global programmes of the United Nations.

Duration: Continuing.

00.2.2 The ECE's follow-up to the Fourth World Conference on Women, Beijing 1995

Description: In accordance with decision J (40) the Executive Secretary is called upon to assess developments with respect to the economic role of women in the ECE region in conjunction with other research activities of the secretariat, taking into account the roles and responsibilities of the regional commissions in developing and implementing the system-wide medium-term plan for women and development and the Nairobi Forward-looking Strategies for the Advancement of Women. In accordance with decision H (44) the secretariat was called upon to concentrate on an inventory of the scope and content of time-use questionnaires and of time-use studies, and to make this data available to member countries. By its resolution 1990/12 the Economic and Social Council called for a World Conference on Women in 1995. As a follow-up to decisions J (40), H (44) and K (48) and Council resolution 1990/12, the Commission provided a regional contribution to the preparatory work for the World Conference.

Work accomplished: The ECE High-level Regional Preparatory Meeting (HLM) for the World Conference (Vienna, October 1994) adopted a Regional Platform for Action which was submitted to the World Conference. An information booklet, mandated by the Department of Public Information, was distributed during the World Conference and the proceedings of the Regional Preparatory Meeting have been published.

The Conference of European Statisticians has convened meetings on improved measurements of women's labour-force participation and statistical indicators required by the Nairobi Forward-looking Strategies in countries of the ECE region. Such statistical input on women's issues provided a substantive input for the World Conference. To coincide with the Beijing Conference, a volume of gender specific statistics was also published with the help of Statistics Sweden, Eurostat and INSTRAW. The next meeting of the European Representatives of ACC members (February 1996) will focus on follow-up to global conferences, including the World Conference on Women.

Work to be undertaken: In its decision A (50) the Commission invited the Executive Secretary to study possible action within the ECE mandate, within existing resources and without prejudice to the existing ECE programmes, on the follow-up at the regional level of the Fourth World Conference on Women. When requested by subsidiary bodies, the secretariat in the documentation it prepares will mainstream the women dimension.

Duration: Continuing.

00.2.3 Promotion of sustainable development at the regional level

Description: The Commission, in accordance with decisions F (48), F (49) and G (50), will continue to pay particular attention to the implementation of sustainable development at the regional level pursuant to relevant provisions of Agenda 21 and General Assembly resolutions.

Work accomplished: A regional conference on transport and environment will be held in 1996 or 1997 (see 00.1.7). The Working Group of Senior Governmental Officials coordinated contributions to the Ministerial Conference on "Environment for Europe" held in Sofia in October 1995.

Work to be undertaken: Following the ECE Action Plan on the regional implementation of Agenda 21, the Principal Subsidiary Bodies are integrating environmental considerations into their sectoral activities and are thus promoting sustainable development across the spectrum of ECE's activities.

The Executive Secretary will continue to bring to the attention of the Executive Secretaries of the other regional commissions the ECE activities aimed at contributing to sustainable development and strengthening of international cooperation in this field.

ECE will play a central role in preparations for the next Ministerial Conference on Environment for Europe (Denmark, 1998), develop a convention on public participation and undertake a series of country Environmental Performance Reviews.

In its decision E (50) the Commission decided to hold during its fifty-first annual session a Round Table Conference on cooperation and sustainable industrial development which it invited the Executive Secretary to prepare in cooperation with other subsidiary bodies, relevant international organizations and NGOs, as well as representatives of the business community and in consultations with ECE experts in the field of industrial cooperation, with a view to elaborating concrete proposals on strengthening cooperation in the field of sustainable industrial development, including modalities of the assistance to the countries in transition in this area. The report on this topic (E/ECE/1327), which will serve as a background document for the round table, contains considerations for further work.

[To be completed as may be necessary]

Duration: Continuing.

00.2.4 International cooperation to address and mitigate the consequences of the accident at the Chernobyl nuclear power plant

Description: As a follow-up to decision C (46), Assembly resolution 47/165, Council resolution 1992/38 and decision J (48), paragraph 7 of decision A (49) called upon the Principal Subsidiary Bodies, in cooperation with the Department of Humanitarian Affairs (DHA), WHO and IAEA, taking into account their respective spheres of competence, to continue to contribute to the work of the Commission to mitigate the consequences of the Chernobyl accident.

Work accomplished and to be undertaken: A number of ECE subsidiary bodies have continued to review proposals for activities to address and mitigate the consequences of the Chernobyl disaster. The secretariat has continued its participation, in cooperation with DHA, in its coordination of international cooperation in this regard and has consulted UNIDO on possible forms of cooperation in the field of water. At the invitation of DHA, as coordinator for international cooperation, ECE participated in preparatory work for the tenth anniversary of the accident.

PROGRAMME ACTIVITY 00.3: COOPERATION WITH OTHER INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

00.3.1 Review of the Commission's cooperation with other United Nations bodies

Description: At its annual sessions the Commission will review its activities in support of and its contribution to other United Nations programmes, especially those of UNCTAD, UNDP, UNEP and UNFPA, as well as of the other regional commissions. It will also consider matters relating to its cooperation with other United Nations bodies including the specialized agencies such as FAO, ILO, UNESCO, UNIDO and WHO, as well as IAEA. Special attention will be paid to problems of the member countries of the ECE which are developing from the economic point of view as part of the Commission's contribution to the global programmes and objectives of the United Nations aiming at economic development.

Work accomplished and to be undertaken: The Commission carries out this review annually on the basis of the Executive Secretary's report on the participation of such organizations and programmes in the Commission's work; on the Commission's own contribution to the programmes of these organizations; and on the secretariat's cooperation with the secretariats of these organizations, including the secretariats of the other regional commissions.

Duration: Continuing.

00.3.2 Review of the Commission's cooperation and coordination of activities with other international organizations and institutions

Description: At its annual sessions the Commission will review its activities related to cooperation and coordination of its activities with other international economic organizations and institutions, and with international non-governmental organizations participating in the work of the Commission and its subsidiary bodies, with particular regard to those organizations and institutions mentioned in decision O (45).

Work accomplished and to be undertaken: The Commission undertakes this review annually on the basis of the Executive Secretary's report on the relevant activities arising out of the participation of such organizations and their secretariats in, and the contribution they make to, the work of the Commission and its subsidiary bodies (see document E/ECE/1334). In its decision A (50)
