RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED BY THE COUNCIL DURING ITS RESUMED THIRTIETH SESSION

805 (XXX). Agreement between the United Nations and the International Development Association

The Economic and Social Council,

Recalling that in resolution 1420 (XIV) of 5 December 1959 the General Assembly welcomed the decision in principle taken by the Board of Governors of the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development to establish an International Development Association and expressed the hope that adequate provisions would be made and appropriate procedures adopted for a close working relationship between the Association and the United Nations,

Noting with satisfaction that the Agreement establishing the International Development Association has entered into force, and that the Association has begun its operations,

Noting further that the Articles of Agreement of the International Development Association provide that the Association shall enter into formal arrangements with the United Nations,

Considering that the management of the Association has been authorized by the Executive Directors of the Association to negotiate and enter into an agreement on behalf of the Association with the United Nations,

1. Requests the President of the Economic and Social Council to negotiate, with the appropriate authorities of the International Development Association, an agreement for the purpose of bringing the Association into relationship with the United Nations;

2. Further requests that if possible the report of these negotiations be submitted for the consideration of the Council at its current session, in order to permit the Council to transmit the agreement to the General Assembly for approval at its resumed fifteenth session.

*1135th plenary meeting,
21 December 1960.*

806 (XXX). Change in the name of the technical assistance programmes

The Economic and Social Council,

Noting General Assembly resolution 1383 B (XIV) of 20 November 1959, and taking into account that technical assistance, through its growing extension to countries at various stages of development and through the increased utilization of the skills and knowledge available in recipient countries, has become an interchange of experience serving to harmonize efforts at development,

Noting that the names of the regular programme and the Expanded Programme of Technical Assistance and their organs are well known under their present full and abbreviated titles to officials of Governments, intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations and to the public interested in their activities and that any change of name might create difficulties for them in readily identifying the programmes and their bodies,

1. Decides that henceforward the work of the United Nations in the field of technical assistance shall be given the collective name of "United Nations Programmes of Technical Co-operation", while maintaining the established titles for the United Nations regular programme of technical assistance and the Expanded Programme of Technical Assistance as well as the organs related to them;

2. Invites the specialized agencies and the International Atomic Energy Agency to consider the possibility of using this collective name to cover also their own activities in the field of technical assistance.

*1136th plenary meeting,
22 December 1960.*

807 (XXX). Agreement between the United Nations and the International Development Association

The Economic and Social Council,

Having considered the draft Agreement negotiated between the President of the Council and the representative of the International Development Association for the purpose of bringing the Association into relationship with the United Nations,

Recommends to the General Assembly that this Agreement, which is annexed hereto, be approved by it at its resumed fifteenth session.

*1136th plenary meeting,
22 December 1960.*

ANNEX

AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE UNITED NATIONS AND THE INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT ASSOCIATION

Whereas Article 57 of the Charter of the United Nations provides that specialized agencies established by intergovernmental agreement and having wide international responsibilities as defined in their basic instruments in economic, social, cultural, educational, health and related fields shall be brought into relationship with the United Nations, and Article 58 provides that the United Nations shall make recommendations for the co-ordination of the policies and activities of the specialized agencies,

Whereas the International Development Association (hereinafter called the Association) is an international agency established by agreement among its member Governments and having wide international responsibilities, as defined in its Articles of Agreement, in economic and related fields,

Whereas the Association has been organized as an affiliate of the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development (hereinafter called the Bank),

Whereas article VI, section 7, of the Articles of Agreement of the Association provides that the Association shall enter into formal arrangements with the United Nations,

Whereas it is desirable to establish on a formal basis arrangements for exchange of information and for consultation as required, among the United Nations, the Bank, and the Association, so as to ensure co-ordination of their technical assistance and other development activities;

Now therefore the United Nations and the Association hereby agree as follows:

Article I

The United Nations and the Association shall have the same rights and obligations toward each other as the United Nations and the Bank have under the Agreement approved by the General Assembly of the United Nations on 15 November 1947 and by the Board of Governors of the Bank on 16 September 1947, which Agreement shall mutatis mutandis govern the relationship between the United Nations and the Association.

Article II¹

There is hereby created a Liaison Committee composed of the Secretary-General of the United Nations and the President of the Bank and of the Association, or their representatives, which the Executive Chairman of the Technical Assistance Board and the Managing Director of the Special Fund, or their representatives, shall be invited to join as full participants. Through this Liaison Committee, which shall meet periodically and not less often than four times a year, the participants shall keep each other fully informed, and shall consult each other as required, on their current programmes and future plans in areas of common interest and concern, thereby assuring co-ordination of their technical assistance and other development activities.

Article III

This Agreement shall come into force when it shall have been approved by the General Assembly of the United Nations and the Board of Governors of the Association.

¹ The Bank has agreed to participate in the Liaison Committee created by article II.

OTHER DECISIONS TAKEN BY THE COUNCIL DURING ITS RESUMED THIRTIETH SESSION

Place of meeting of the ad hoc working group established by Council resolution 798 (XXX)
