870 (XXXIII). Nature, scope and location of the conference on international travel and tourism

The Economic and Social Council,

Bearing in mind the importance of international travel in promoting international understanding and cultural relationships, fostering international trade and furthering economic development, particularly in the developing countries,

Recognizing that in order to encourage the development of international travel it is desirable, wherever possible, to reduce travel formalities and also to standardize such formalities as are deemed necessary,

Considering Article 62, paragraph 4, of the Charter of the United Nations, which provides that the Council may call, in accordance with the rules prescribed by the United Nations, international conferences on matters falling within its competence,

Considering further the rules for the calling of international conferences of States contained in General Assembly resolution 366 (IV) of 3 December 1949,

Having considered the recommendations set forth in the note by the Secretary-General⁸ transmitting to the Council the report of the Group of Experts on International Travel and Tourism with whom he consulted in compliance with Council resolution 813 (XXXI) of 27 April 1961,

Recalling its previous resolutions concerning the development of international travel — namely, resolutions 563 (XIX) of 31 March 1955, 644 (XXIII) of 26 April 1957, 724 B (XXVIII) of July 1959 and especially 813 (XXXI) of 27 April 1961 requesting the Secretary-General, in consultation if necessary with a group of not more than seven experts, to prepare recommendations concerning the nature, scope and location of the conference on international travel and tourism, including a provisional agenda, and to call the conference as soon as possible, but not later than the autumn of 1963,

Noting that a majority of those Governments which replied to the questionnaire issued by the Secretary-General in August 1960 have expressed themselves in favour of holding a conference on international travel and tourism as early as possible,

(a) The preparation of the necessary documentation;

(b) The circulation of the note by the Secretary-General, including annex 3 of the report of the Group of Experts, and, after consultation with the International Civil Aviation Organization, a report on the results of the deliberations at the sixth session of that organization's Facilitation Division relating to the facilitation of governmental formalities regarding travel;

7. Further requests the Secretary-General:

(b) To convene the next sessions of the two expert bodies in 1963 with a view to the continuation of their tasks in accordance with the terms of reference outlined in Council resolutions 645 G (XXIII) and 724 C (XXVIII) and to arrange for the Group of Experts on Explosives to report to the Committee of Experts for Further Work on the Transport of Dangerous Goods in time to allow the latter to take account of those recommendations in its own report to the Council;

873 (XXXIII). Industrial development activities of the United Nations system

The Economic and Social Council,

Recalling General Assembly resolution 1712 (XVI) of 19 December 1961,

Recognizing that a high rate of industrial development is a necessary condition for the accelerated economic growth of under-developed countries, within a framework of expanding employment opportunities,

Taking into account the need for greater international action to accelerate the industrial development of less developed countries, in accordance with their over-all development efforts and in the spirit of the United Nations Development Decade, as defined in General Assembly resolution 1710 (XVI) of 19 December 1961,

Further taking into account the establishment in the United Nations Secretariat of the Industrial Development Centre, the work of the Division of Industrial Development and the existence of the Committee for Industrial Development and its inter-sessional working group,

*1197th plenary meeting,

Considering the statement of financial implications prepared by the Secretary-General,¹⁶

2. Endorses the request made to the Executive Secretary of the Commission to convene a conference of ministers to review the report of the committee and to take appropriate steps within the framework of the decision of the Commission on the establishment of the bank;

3. Requests the Secretary-General to extend to the Executive Secretary of the Commission the substantive and administrative support to enable him to carry out the decisions contained in resolution 52 (IV) of the Commission;

Believing that adequate ground exists for the formulation of a pronouncement that would be generally acceptable,

Decides that a working group of twelve members nominated by the President be constituted, due regard being given to the necessity of the widest possible geographical representation, to consider the draft declaration, the amendments thereto and the views expressed during the discussions at the thirty-third session of the Council and to prepare a formulation on this subject in the light thereof for submission to the Council at its thirty-fifth session.

Recalling its resolutions 675 (XXV) of 2 May 1958, 743 A (XXVIII) of 31 July 1959 and 759 (XXIX) of 21 April 1960,

Considering the growing importance of co-ordinated water resources development for developing countries, especially newly independent countries,
