NOTE

1. At its 100th meeting, on 23 December 1995, the General Assembly adopted resolutions 50/214, concerning questions relating to the proposed programme budget for the biennium 1996-1997, and 50/215 A and B, concerning the programme budget for the biennium 1996-1997.
2. In section IV of its resolution 50/214, the General Assembly decided that the amounts under expenditure sections 1 to 33 represented a provisional total of $2,712,265,200, that the projected level of savings to be achieved in the biennium would be $103,999,200 and that the total level of expenditure provided for in the biennium 1996-1997 was $2,608,274,000.
3. In resolution 50/215 A, the Assembly adopted budget appropriations totalling $2,608,274,000 and, in resolution 50/215 B, it adopted the estimate of income other than income from staff assessment in the amount of $87,095,700 and an estimate of income from staff assessment in the amount of $384,306,000.
4. In paragraph 7 of section II of resolution 50/214, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General to present as soon as possible, and no later than 31 March 1996, to the Assembly through the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions a report containing proposals of possible savings for its consideration and approval.
5. The programme budget of the United Nations for the biennium 1996-1997 is approved by the General Assembly following consideration of the Secretary-General's proposed programme budget, 1/ the report of the Committee for Programme and Coordination 2/ and the report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions. 3/
6. During the fiftieth session of the General Assembly, the Fifth Committee considered reports of the Secretary-General under agenda item 116 that contained revised estimates, including those resulting from decisions taken by the Economic and Social Council, and statements of programme budget implications on draft resolutions of plenary meetings of the General Assembly as well as of the Second and Third Committees of the Assembly, together with the related reports of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions. 4/ The Assembly accordingly took decisions, which affected the programme budget, based on the recommendations contained in the report of the Fifth Committee. 5/
7. In paragraph 11 of part II of resolution 50/214, the General Assembly decided to make the following changes to the programmatic narrative of the proposed programme budget for the biennium 1996-1997:
 - (a) Amend, as appropriate, references to "island developing States" to read "small island developing States";
 - (b) In paragraph 71, third sentence, of the Introduction, replace "in Eastern Europe and the countries in transition" by "for countries with economies in transition";
 - (c) In paragraph 1.37, fourth sentence, after "efforts", add "to promote international economic cooperation and economic and social development and";
 - (d) In paragraphs 2.48 and 2.48.1 (a) (iii), delete "the front-line States", and in paragraph 2.104.3 (b), delete ", but not in Africa";

(e) In paragraph 7A.41, the last two lines should read: "encouraging integration with national efforts through such approaches as a programme approach, national execution and country strategy notes, at the request of the recipient Governments";

(f) Redraft the beginning of paragraph 8.3 as follows: "The main objectives of the Department will be the promotion of an integrated approach to economic, social and environmental aspects of development, including the elaboration of perspectives that will provide for sustainable, equitable and participatory development. The Department will develop and promote a coordinated approach to key policy issues. To that end, the Department will help Governments, international organizations, non-governmental organizations and others interested in determining ...";

(g) In paragraph 8.6, penultimate sentence, after "regulation" add "as well as analysis of such issues as the role of markets in fostering growth, the provision of public goods, marginalization and social integration, human resources development, the impact of economic sanctions and the peace-development link";

(h) In paragraph 8.41, the last sentence should read: "Recent developments in the world economy reinforce the need to view the development process as being increasingly integrated through economic, social and political linkages";

(i) In paragraph 8.42, delete the third sentence, reading "In the area of security economics, the focus will be on analysing the linkages between political and economic issues and policies.", and amend the last sentence to read: "The subprogramme will also focus on reporting to the General Assembly and the Security Council (as appropriate) on the impact of multilateral economic sanctions, coercive economic measures, participation of affected countries in post-conflict reconstruction and rehabilitation of the crisis-stricken areas, in the context of provisions of General Assembly resolutions 50/51 of 11 December 1995 and 50/58 E of 12 December 1995.";

(j) The beginning of paragraph 8.66 (a) should read: "One new P-5 post for research, analysis and policy studies on international migration, in particular the refugee flows and the causes, impact and different consequences of such movements including the human rights aspects and economic consequences of such population movements.";

(k) In paragraph 9.8, after "Unit", insert "for countries with economies in transition";

(l) In paragraph 9.8 (e), delete "; at the same time, the fellowships and technical assistance recruitment function at Geneva will be discontinued";

(m) In paragraph 9.21, third and fourth sentences, after "provided", add "upon the request of Governments";

(n) In paragraph 9.24, second sentence, replace the reference to "sustainable human development" by "sustained economic growth and sustainable development", and delete "as well as, where appropriate, within the context of the peace-to-development continuum";

(o) In paragraph 9.29, at the end of the first sentence, after "Agenda 21", add ", in the context of permanent sovereignty over natural resources and of an integral approach to environment and development";

(p) In paragraph 10A.4, add the Commission on Science and Technology for Development to the list of subsidiary bodies;

(q) In paragraph 13.13, first sentence, after "sophisticated forms", add "such as illicit traffic of children, child prostitution and child pornography";

(r) In paragraph 18.28, after the first sentence, add the sentence "All these activities will be implemented upon the request of interested Governments, taking into account their national priorities.";

(s) In paragraph 20.15, first sentence, after "are implemented" insert "upon the request of Governments in accordance with their national programmes and priorities";

(t) In paragraph 20.22, at the end of the first sentence, add "by General Assembly resolution 47/214 of 23 December 1992 and subsequent relevant resolutions";

(u) In paragraph 21.2, at the end of the first sentence, add ", in particular General Assembly resolution 48/121 of 20 December 1993, which endorsed the Vienna Declaration and Programme of Action, and resolution 48/141 of the same date, which created the post of United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights.", and delete the rest of paragraph 21.2;

(v) Delete paragraphs 21.3 to 21.6, inclusive, and renumber the subsequent paragraphs;

(w) In paragraph 24.4, last sentence, after "humanitarian advocate", add "consistent with the leadership role of the Secretary-General and the guiding principles, including those of impartiality, humanity and neutrality set out in the annex to resolution 46/182";

(x) At the end of paragraph 24.18.1 (h), delete "and initiate a regime to limit stockpiling, production and trade of landmines (XB)";

(y) In paragraph 25.1, delete the reference to document A/49/6;

(z) In paragraph 25.11, replace the last sentence by: "In that context, the activities of the United Nations information centres and the programmes of the Department of Public Information of the Secretariat, including those in support of major United Nations conferences, are aimed at supporting the main activities of the Organization, emphasizing those related to peace, security and disarmament, economic and social development, human rights and other political affairs, such as the question of Palestine, in accordance with General Assembly resolution 48/44 B of 10 December 1993. The activities of the centres and the Department, as well as the production of articles in magazines, radio and television broadcasts, and a variety of important publications, have all contributed substantially to promoting that understanding all over the world.";

(aa) In paragraph 25.12.3 (b) (ii), after the reference to the Agenda for Peace, add ", already approved by the General Assembly in its resolutions 47/120 A and B,";

(bb) In paragraph 25.91, the first sentence should read: "Information centres play a vital role in collecting, analysing, summarizing and providing Headquarters with analysis, media summaries and clippings on developments related to all United Nations activities, including those related to international peace and security.";

(cc) In paragraph 26C.58, add an additional subparagraph reading: "(f) Providing language training in the six official languages."; and in paragraph 26C.58.5, the first sentence should read: "Language training is provided in the six official languages in accordance with resolution 2480 B (XXIII) of 21 December 1968, 43/224 D of 21 December 1988 and 50/11 of 2 November 1995.";

(dd) In paragraph 29.3, first sentence, before "peacekeeping", add "development,";

(ee) Paragraph 29.4 should read: "The objectives of the programme include ensuring compliance with resolutions of the General Assembly and with regulations, rules and policies of the United Nations; monitoring programme implementation and evaluating the results achieved; reviewing and appraising the use of financial resources of the United Nations in order to guarantee the implementation of programmes and legislative mandates; investigating alleged violations of United Nations regulations, rules and pertinent administrative issuances; and recommending policies and measures for the promotion of economy and efficiency based on these audits, inspections and investigations, in accordance with resolution 48/218 B.";

(ff) In paragraph 29.26 (a), first sentence, add the United Nations Office at Nairobi to the list.

8. Section I of the present document contains the detailed history of the appropriation for sections of expenditure and of the income estimates adopted for the biennium 1996-1997, starting in the first column with the estimates submitted by the Secretary-General in the proposed programme budget for the biennium 1996-1997, followed by the estimates submitted in the context of statements of programme budget implications and revised estimates. The second column indicates the changes made by the General Assembly to the estimates of the Secretary-General. The third column includes the expenditure estimates. These expenditure estimates will be adjusted to reflect the reduction of $103,991,200, which will be confirmed by the General Assembly.

9. Table 1 gives a breakdown by budget section of the expenditure estimates. Tables 3, 6, 7 and 11 of the proposed programme budget for the biennium 1996-1997 have been updated and renumbered as 2, 3, 4, and 5 for the present document in order to reflect the appropriation approved in resolutions 50/214, section IV, and 50/215 A, the staffing table of the Organization for continuing posts approved by resolution 50/215, and the updated budgetary assumptions for inflation, exchange rates, post adjustment, cost-of-living adjustments and rates of common staff costs.
