THE "WISNUMURTI GUIDELINES"
FOR SELECTING
A CANDIDATE
FOR SECRETARY - GENERAL

November 1996

Foreword

At the luncheon of Members of the Security Council, hosted on 14 October 1996 by the President for that month, the Permanent Representative of Honduras, H.E. Ambassador Gerardo Martinez Blanco, it was decided to begin the consultations for the Council's recommendation on the appointment of the Secretary-General (article 97 of the United Nations' Charter) in the following month.

Therefore the question was taken up by the President for November, the Permanent Representative of Indonesia, H.E. Ambassador Nugroho Wisnumurti. At the beginning of his term of office, he submitted to the members of the Security Council a set of guidelines to facilitate the process of selecting a candidate. After slight amendments, the guidelines were adopted at the luncheon he hosted on 12 November, when it was also decided to begin the decision-making process on 18 November. A first vote, on 19 November, was inconclusive.

Italy became the President of the Security Council on 1 December. The "Wisnumurti guidelines" - as they came to be known - proved to be instrumental to reaching a decision by acclamation on Mr. Kofi Annan as the candidate recommended to the General Assembly on 13 December. On the same day, the Members of the Council decided that the guidelines should be printed as a reference document for future occasions when the Council is called on to recommend the appointment of a Secretary-General. Therefore I have prepared and circulated 100 copies of the "Wisnumurti guidelines", and sent them to, among others, the President of the General Assembly, the Secretary-General elect, the Secretariat of the Security Council, and the library of the United Nations.

On behalf of all the Members of the Security Council, I wish to express to H.E. Ambassador Nugroho Wisnumurti and his delegation our warmest thanks and appreciation for their commitment and most useful contribution.

New York, 31 December 1996.

F. Paolo Fulci
