*E/CN.15/1997/1.

1. The present note contains a summary of the programme of work in crime prevention and criminal justice for the biennium 1998-1999 for consideration by the Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice. The proposed programme of work will be reflected in section 14 (Crime prevention and criminal justice) of the proposed programme budget for the biennium 1998-1999. It will become final upon approval by the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions and by the General Assembly at its fifty-second session.

I. OVERVIEW

2. The proposed programme of work is derived from programme 12 (Crime prevention and criminal justice) of the medium-term plan for the period 1998-2001 (A/51/6 (Prog.12)). It is consistent with the statement of principles and programme of action approved by the General Assembly in its resolution 46/152, the Naples Political Declaration and Global Action Plan against Organized Transnational Crime (A/49/748, sect. I.A) approved by the Assembly in its resolution 49/159 and the resolutions adopted by the Ninth United Nations Congress on the Prevention of Crime and the Treatment of Offenders,<sup>1</sup> held at Cairo from 29 April to 8 May 1995, which were subsequently endorsed by the General Assembly in its resolution 50/145.

3. The General Assembly, in its resolution 50/214, approved the upgrading of the Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice Branch to a division. In its resolution 51/63, the General Assembly reaffirmed its resolution 50/214 and requested the Secretary-General to ensure, in particular, the full implementation of section III, paragraphs 29 and 30, of its resolution 50/214, concerning the reclassification of the D-1 post of the Chief of the Branch to the D-2 level and the establishment of two P-3 posts for activities relating to subprogramme 2 (Collaborative action against transnational crime) and subprogramme 3 (Crime prevention and criminal justice management) of section 13 of the programme budget for the biennium 1996-1997. Corresponding provisions were made in the context of the programme budget for the biennium 1996-1997. Also in its resolution 51/63, the Assembly requested the Secretary-General to strengthen further the United Nations Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice Programme by providing it with the resources necessary for the full implementation of its mandates, including follow-up action to the Naples Political Declaration and Global Action Plan and to the Ninth Congress.

II. POLICY-MAKING ORGANS

Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice

4. The 40-member Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice reports to the Economic and Social Council, in accordance with the statement of principles and programme of action of the United Nations Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice Programme, contained in the annex to General Assembly resolution 46/152, and Economic and Social Council resolution 1992/1, in which the Council decided to establish the Commission as one of its functional commissions. In accordance with Assembly resolution 46/152, annex, one of the functions of the Commission is to prepare for the United Nations congresses on the prevention of crime and the treatment of offenders. In its resolution 51/120, the Assembly requested the Commission to consider the question of the elaboration of an international convention against organized transnational crime.

5. The Commission holds annual sessions at Vienna that last eight working days. During each of its sessions, it establishes in-session working groups to consider in detail specific agenda items and its Committee of the Whole considers draft resolutions and recommendations (14 meetings). In accordance with its resolution 5/3, on its strategic management of the United Nations Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice Programme, the Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice requested its bureau to submit a report on its inter-sessional work. In addition, in its resolution 5/3, it decided that it should also endeavour to hold inter-sessional meetings with the bureau of the Commission on Narcotic Drugs in order to improve coordination of work of the two commissions. It also decided to establish an informal consultative group on resource mobilization, which is to meet between sessions and to report annually on activities undertaken and results achieved. The inter-sessional work of the bureau of the Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice will require the holding of 12 meetings in the period 1998-1999, and the work of the informal consultative group on resource mobilization will require 12 meetings in the same period. Organizational and substantive preparation and support for those meetings will be provided by the Secretariat.

III. PROGRAMME OF WORK

6. The subprogramme will, during the biennium 1998-1999, focus on the following main groups of activities:

(a) Technical assistance and advisory services:

- (i) Promoting the fundamental principles of maintenance of the rule of law and increasing the capacity of States to devise and implement effective, integrated and consolidated crime prevention and criminal justice strategies and measures at the national level and to put into effect bilateral and multilateral arrangements at the regional and interregional levels;
- (ii) Strengthening the capacity of Governments to reform their legislation and criminal justice systems;
- (iii) Establishing or strengthening their institutions and mechanisms for the detection, investigation, prosecution and adjudication of various types of crime;
- (iv) Upgrading the skills of crime prevention and criminal justice personnel;

(b) Control of organized transnational crime:

- (i) Assisting States in the specific actions required for the full and expeditious implementation of the Naples Political Declaration and Global Action Plan against Organized Transnational Crime;
- (ii) Assisting States in integrating and consolidating their efforts to prevent and combat organized transnational crime in all its forms, by, inter alia, collecting and disseminating relevant information and documentation;
- (iii) Elaborating and assisting in the implementation of effective strategies and practical arrangements for the consistent and efficient cooperation of the services concerned against particularly noxious forms of criminality, such as organized transnational crime, including drug trafficking, corruption, terrorism, smuggling of illegal migrants, trafficking in women and children, environmental offences, laundering of the proceeds of crime, fraudulent operations and other forms of economic crime;
- (iv) Assisting States in strengthening and enhancing their capacity to achieve more effective international cooperation against the threats posed by organized transnational crime;

(c) Criminal justice systems management and information:

- (i) Strengthening and expanding the clearing-house functions of the Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice Division;
- (ii) Promoting consistent, cost-effective, fair and humane crime prevention and criminal justice policies through the application of modern management techniques and recent advances in science and technology, including the use of computers;
- (iii) Assisting in the upgrading of criminal justice statistical capabilities in order to permit data collection, collation, analysis and utilization for rational decision-making and to increase public awareness of the importance and long-term effectiveness of devising and including in development plans measures and strategies for crime prevention and control including the question of firearm regulation and the question of violence, in particular in urban areas;
- (iv) Providing an empirical basis for national and international efforts directed at the prevention and control of crime, by analysing trends in conventional and transnational crime, reporting on the measures taken and determining the areas of priority concern;

(d) Crime prevention strategies:

- (i) Assisting Member States in the formulation and implementation of crime prevention policies;
- (ii) Promoting the wide application of the United Nations standards and norms in crime prevention and criminal justice;
- (iii) Identifying the problems impeding the practical application of those standards and norms and recommending appropriate action designed to deal more effectively with burgeoning crime;
- (iv) Increasing the confidence of the public in law enforcement and criminal justice agencies.

(e) Tenth United Nations Congress on the Prevention of Crime and the Treatment of Offenders: The Division will undertake all preparatory activities for the Tenth Congress, including the organization of five regional preparatory meetings and the elaboration of related documentation.

7. The Division will analyse and develop as required policy issues in the field of crime prevention and criminal justice and produce major reports and documents such as United Nations Survey of Crime Trends and Operations of Criminal Justice Systems, the global report on crime and justice and the international study on firearm regulation, as well as analytical reports of the Secretary-General on the thematic issues before the Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice and on emerging trends and new approaches to issues affecting the situation in the field of crime prevention and criminal justice. Documentation, substantive and technical services will be provided to the Commission, the Economic and Social Council and the General Assembly as mandated.

8. The subprogramme will consist of expanded operational activities to be carried out by developing procedures and practices for project formulation, implementation and evaluation. It will provide support to the advisory services conducted by the interregional advisers for crime prevention and criminal justice.

9. The subprogramme will mobilize increased resources for technical cooperation activities, including the United Nations Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice Fund. It will also ensure improved overall coordination within the United Nations system, especially with the Centre for Human Rights for the Secretariat, the United Nations International Drug Control Programme (UNDCP) and the United Nations Development Programme, and will strengthen the capacity of the Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice in its efforts to improve coordination of technical cooperation activities, whether carried out bilaterally or multilaterally. The United Nations Crime and Justice Information Network will be further developed and expanded in order to enable it to perform its mandated and reaffirmed clearing-house functions, with particular reference to the needs of developing countries, and to intensify the collection and dissemination of crime-related information.
