ANNEX

Decision on the candidature of Mr. Salim Ahmed Salim to the post of the Secretary-General of the United Nations Organization

The Assembly of Heads of State and Government of the Organization of African Unity at its eighteenth ordinary session held in Nairobi, Kenya, from 24 to 27 June 1981, listened to the submission of H.E. Sir Dawda Jawara, President of the Republic of Gambia, on the nomination of Mr. Salim Ahmed Salim, the Minister of Foreign Affairs of the United Republic of Tanzania, to the post of Secretary-General of the United Nations Organization.

After elaborating on the eminent qualifications of Mr. Salim Ahmed Salim as a leading diplomat who has played an important role in the Organization, Sir Dawda pointed out that no African has had the opportunity to serve as the Secretary-General of that Organization despite the Africans' meritorious contributions to the work of the United Nations. This is now the time for Africa to contest for the post. Accordingly, Sir Dawda commended the nomination of Hon. Salim Ahmed Salim for the approval of the Assembly.

All the Heads of State and Government or their representatives who spoke on the item supported the proposal of the President of the Gambia. At the conclusion of the debate the Summit:

1. Unanimously approved the candidature of Salim Ahmed Salim as Africa's candidature for the post of the Secretary-General of the United Nations Organization;

2. Requested the current Chairman of the Organization of African Unity to formally communicate the organization's decision to the United Nations.
