NOTE BY THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

At the 12th plenary meeting of its eighth emergency special session, on 14 September 1981, the General Assembly adopted resolution ES-8/2, entitled "Question of Namibia".*

In paragraph 12 of resolution ES-8/2, the General Assembly

"Strongly urges the Security Council, in the light of the serious threat to international peace and security posed by South Africa, to respond positively to the overwhelming demand of the international community by immediately imposing against that country comprehensive mandatory sanctions as provided for in Chapter VII of the Charter".
