EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE
HIGH COMMISSIONER'S PROGRAMME

Forty-eighth session

OVERVIEW OF UNHCR ACTIVITIES

1996 - 1998

ADDENDUM 2 - UPDATE ON PROGRAMME AND FUNDING PROJECTIONS FOR 1997 AND 1998

I. INTRODUCTION

1. An update of UNHCR programme expenditure and funding projections for 1997 and tentative estimates for the 1998 General Programmes target (as at 1 May 1997) was presented to the eighth meeting of the Standing Committee on 24 to 26 June 1997 (EC/47/SC/CRP.34). A further update (as at 31 May 1997) is reflected in document A/AC.96/884 (Overview of UNHCR Activities: 1996 - 1998). The present document provides further updated information (as at 1 August 1997) for 1997 and 1998 General and Special Programmes.

2. The current budgetary estimates for 1997 General Programmes remain at $ 452.6 million, of which $ 25.0 million are for the Emergency Fund, $ 20.0 million for the Voluntary Repatriation Fund and $ 37.1 million for the Programme Reserve, with unallocated balances remaining of $ 22.2 million for the Emergency Fund, $ 3.7 million for the Voluntary Repatriation Fund and $ 18.2 million for the Programme Reserve as of 1 August 1997. An update on the use of these funding sources is provided in paragraphs 8 to 10 below.

3. The initial budgetary estimates for 1998 General Programmes stand at $ 440 million, of which $ 25.0 million are for the Emergency Fund, $ 20.0 million for the Voluntary Repatriation Fund and $ 35.9 million for the Programme Reserve (10 per cent of programmed activities).

4. In documentation presented to the forty-seventh session of the Executive Committee, UNHCR provided partial projections for the volume of 1997 Special Programmes activities amounting to some $ 690.5 million (Table II.8 of document A/AC.96/865 refers). These projections were updated for subsequent Standing Committee meetings. The most recent update is found in Table II.3 of document A/AC.96/884. That update, as at 31 May 1997, showed revised programme needs under Special Programmes amounting to $ 779.4 million. A further update is attached as Annex 1 to this document and shows needs under Special Programmes, as at 1 August 1997, amounting to $ 737.8 million.

5. The present update provides additional information on 1997 and 1998 General Programmes in Part II, whilst Part III deals with 1997 and 1998 Special Programmes. Part IV sets out total funding projections for 1997.

II. GENERAL PROGRAMMES

6. At its forty-seventh session, the Executive Committee approved a target of $ 452.6 million for General Programmes for 1997. As noted in paragraph 2 above, this estimate included $ 37.1 million as a Programme Reserve (representing 10 per cent of programme activities), $ 25.0 million for the Emergency Fund and $ 20.0 million for the Voluntary Repatriation Fund.

7. A programme/budgetary review of 1997 implementation rates is currently being carried out in order to identify new or additional needs in some countries due, for example, to caseload increases or exchange rate losses which may be offset by exchange rate gains and programme changes in other countries. Given the projected shortfall in available funds (see paragraph 14 below), this review will be followed by a substantive examination of where the necessary significant reductions in programmed activities will be made.

8. UNHCR has not needed to make as extensive use of the Emergency Fund as in previous years. By 31 May 1997, $ 1.5 million had been allocated, and by 1 August 1997, a further $ 1.3 million had been allocated, leaving a balance of $ 22.2 million available for the remainder of the year. An update on the use of the Emergency Fund is provided in Annex II of this document. It replaces Table II.7 of document A/AC.96/884.

9. With regard to the Voluntary Repatriation Fund, allocations totalling $ 15.7 million had been made by 31 May 1997. Between that date and 1 August 1997, further allocations were made, leaving a balance (including cancellations) of $ 3.7 million available for the remainder of the year. An update on the use of the Voluntary Repatriation Fund is provided in Annex III of this document. It replaces Table II.6 of document A/AC.96/884.

10. As regards the Programme Reserve, the total allocated stood at $ 17.1 million on 31 May 1997. Some $ 1.8 million have since been allocated, mainly for Ethiopia, Kenya, Eritrea, Albania, Mexico and Cuba, thus leaving a balance of $ 18.2 million available for the remainder of the year. An update on the use of the Programme Reserve is provided in Annex IV of this document. It replaces Table II.5 of document A/AC.96/884.

11. Details on the initial budgetary estimates for 1998 General Programmes of $ 440 million are provided in document A/AC.96/884. More detailed information, in the form of Regional Overviews, has been provided to various Standing Committee meetings during the course of 1997.

III. SPECIAL PROGRAMMES

12. With respect to Special Programmes, projections for 1997 are now some $ 41.6 million lower than those presented in Tables II.3 and II.8 of document A/AC.96/884, mainly because the budgetary estimates have been decreased for the former Yugoslavia and the Angola and Afghanistan repatriation programmes.

13. Initial Special Programmes needs for 1998 stand at $ 611.7 million as projected as at 31 May 1997 (Table II.8 of document A/AC.96/884). It has to be noted, however, that these projections are provisional and, of necessity, incomplete. They will be revised as requirements evolve. Updated 1998 estimates will be presented to the Standing Committee in January 1998.

IV. TOTAL PROGRAMME AND FUNDING PROJECTIONS FOR 1997

14. Annex 1 provides updated projections for programme needs in 1997, as well as a forecast of income, including information on income actually received. Total income at 1 August 1997 amounted to $ 549.9 million. General Programmes remain a high priority for UNHCR and some $ 103.7 million in funding are still required to meet the 1997 General Programmes budgetary target in addition to the projected further income. To facilitate planning and implementation of programmes until the end of the year, confirmation of likely further contributions would greatly assist UNHCR.

15. In regard to the Special Programmes set out in Annex I, UNHCR at this juncture still hopes to receive some $ 210.1 million, which, however, would leave a funding shortfall amounting to $ 91.1 million for the remainder of the year. UNHCR will remain in close contact with the donor community, with a view to securing further resources, most urgently for repatriation/returnee programmes offering durable solutions to some long-standing refugee situations.
