SUMMARY STATEMENT BY THE SECRETARY-GENERAL ON MATTERS OF WHICH THE SECURITY COUNCIL IS SEIZED AND ON THE STAGE
REACHED IN THEIR CONSIDERATION

Addendum

Pursuant to rule 11 of the provisional rules of procedure of the Security Council, the Secretary-General is submitting the following summary statement:

The complete list of items of which the Security Council is seized is contained in document S/11593 of 7 January 1975 and the pertinent addenda. During the week ending 23 August 1975, the Security Council took the following action in connexion with the admission of new Members:

By a note issued on 13 August (S/11800), the Secretary-General circulated the application of the Republic of Cape Verde for admission to membership in the United Nations.

By a note issued on 14 August (S/11804), the Secretary-General circulated the application of the Democratic Republic of São Tomé and Príncipe for admission to membership in the United Nations.

By a note issued on 16 August (S/11805), the Secretary-General circulated the application of the People's Republic of Mozambique for admission to membership in the United Nations.

At its 1837th meeting on 18 August, the Security Council included the three applications mentioned above in its agenda without objection. In accordance with rule 59 of the provisional rules of procedure and in the absence of a proposal to the contrary, the President referred the three applications to the Committee on the Admission of New Members for consideration and report.

On 18 August, the Committee on the Admission of New Members submitted its report (S/11806), in which it recommended to the Security Council the adoption of three draft resolutions.

At the 1838th meeting, also held on 18 August, the Council included the Committee's report in its agenda without objection, and the President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representative of Portugal, at his request, to participate in the discussion without the right to vote.

In accordance with the procedure agreed upon in the course of prior consultations, the President put to the vote first the three draft resolutions recommended by the Committee on the Admission of New Members. The three draft resolutions were each adopted unanimously as resolutions 372 (1975), 373 (1975) and 374 (1975).

Resolution 372 (1975) read as follows:

The Security Council,

Having examined the application of the Republic of Cape Verde for admission to the United Nations (S/11800),

Recommends to the General Assembly that the Republic of Cape Verde be admitted to membership in the United Nations.

Resolution 373 (1975) read as follows:

The Security Council,

Having examined the application of the Democratic Republic of São Tomé and Príncipe for admission to the United Nations (S/11804),

Recommends to the General Assembly that the Democratic Republic of São Tomé and Príncipe be admitted to membership in the United Nations.

Resolution 374 (1975) read as follows:

The Security Council,

Having examined the application of the People's Republic of Mozambique for admission to the United Nations (S/11805),

Recommends to the General Assembly that the People's Republic of Mozambique be admitted to membership in the United Nations.
