The Security Council continued its consideration of the question at its 1869th meeting held on 22 December 1975.

The Security Council adopted the draft resolution (S/11915) unanimously as resolution 384 (1975). In its operative paragraphs, resolution 384 (1975) reads as follows:

2. Calls upon the Government of Indonesia to withdraw without delay all its forces from the Territory;
3. Calls upon the Government of Portugal as administering Power to co-operate fully with the United Nations so as to enable the people of East Timor to exercise freely their right to self-determination;
4. Urges all States and other parties concerned to co-operate fully with the efforts of the United Nations to achieve a peaceful solution to the existing situation and to facilitate the decolonization of the Territory;

5. Requests the Secretary-General to send urgently a special representative to East Timor for the purpose of making an on-the-spot assessment of the existing situation and of establishing contact with all the parties in the Territory and all States concerned in order to ensure the implementation of the present resolution;

6. Further requests the Secretary-General to follow the implementation of the present resolution and, taking into account the report of his special representative, to submit recommendations to the Security Council as soon as possible;

7. Decides to remain seized of the situation.
