ON HUMAN RIGHTS IN GENEVA, APRIL 15, 1998.

The OIC Contact Group on Jammu and Kashmir meeting on the occasion of the 54th Session of the United Nations Commission on Human Rights expressed their continuing deep concern over the situation in Jammu and Kashmir, especially the gross and systematic human rights violations resulting in the suffering of the Kashmiri people.

The Meeting reaffirmed all OIC Summit and Ministerial Declarations and Resolutions on the Jammu and Kashmir dispute and expressed encouragement and support for the Pakistan-India dialogue to promote peace, rapprochement and economic development in South Asia.

The Meeting recalled the decision of the UN Security Council contained in its resolution 122 (1957) of 24 January 1957 that the final disposition of the State of Jammu and Kashmir will be made in accordance with the will of the people expressed through the democratic method of a free and impartial plebiscite conducted under the auspices of the United Nations.

The Meeting called for an immediate end to the massive violations of human rights and, in this regard, reiterated the determination of OIC Member States to continue their efforts for the full protection of the fundamental human rights of the people of Jammu and Kashmir. It called on India to allow international human rights bodies, thematic special rapporteurs and NGOs to regularly visit and monitor the human rights situation in Jammu and Kashmir.

The Meeting affirmed once again the commitment of the OIC to promote a just and peaceful solution to the Jammu and Kashmir dispute in accordance with the United Nations resolutions; expressed their resolve to seek the effective realization of the right of self-determination of the Kashmiri people and conveyed their support for the efforts of the Government of Pakistan to resolve through a serious substantive and meaningful dialogue on the Jammu and Kashmir dispute which is the basic cause of the tensions between India and Pakistan.
