For the existing text substitute

N. Holding of plenary meetings of the Council away from United Nations Headquarters

38. Under paragraph 11 of draft resolution J (see A/35/24/Corr.1), the General Assembly would authorize the Council to hold a series of plenary meetings away from United Nations Headquarters during 1981 and, for that purpose, would request the Secretary-General to defray the cost of those meetings and to provide the necessary staff and services for them. The meetings would last approximately five days.
