Chapter VII

State responsibility

A. Introduction

1. At its first session, in 1949, the Commission selected State responsibility among the topics which it considered suitable for codification. In response to General Assembly resolution 799 (VIII) of 7 December 1953 requesting the Commission to undertake, as soon as it considered it advisable, the codification of the principles of international law concerning State responsibility, the Commission, at its seventh session in 1955, decided to begin the study of State responsibility and appointed F. V. Garcia Amador as Special Rapporteur for the topic. At the next six sessions of the Commission, from 1956 to 1961, the Special Rapporteur presented six successive reports dealing on the whole with the question of responsibility for injuries to the persons or property of aliens.¹

2. The Commission at its fourteenth session in 1962 set up a subcommittee whose task was to prepare a preliminary report containing suggestions concerning the scope and approach of the future study.²

3. At its fifteenth session in 1963, the Commission, having unanimously approved the report of the subcommittee, appointed Mr. Roberto Ago as Special Rapporteur for the topic.

4. The Commission, from its twenty-first (1969) to its thirty-first sessions (1979) received eight reports from the Special Rapporteur.³
5. The general plan adopted by the Commission at its twenty-seventh session, in 1975, for the draft articles on the topic of “State responsibility” envisaged the structure of the draft articles as follows: Part One would concern the origin of international responsibility; Part Two would concern the content, forms and degrees of international responsibility; and a possible Part Three, which the Commission might decide to include, could concern the question of the settlement of disputes and the implementation of international responsibility.⁴
6. The Commission at its thirty-second session, in 1980, provisionally adopted on first reading Part One of the draft articles, concerning “the origin of international responsibility”.⁵
7. At its thirty-first session (1979), the Commission, in view of the election of Mr. Ago as a Judge to the International Court of Justice, appointed Mr. Willem Riphagen Special Rapporteur for the topic.
8. The Commission, from its thirty-second (1980) to its thirty-eighth sessions (1986), received seven reports from Mr. Willem Riphagen,⁶ for Parts Two and Three of the topic.⁷
9. At its thirty-ninth session in 1987, the Commission appointed Mr. Gaetano Arangio-Ruiz as Special Rapporteur to succeed Mr. Willem Riphagen, whose term of office as a Member of the Commission had expired on 31 December 1986. The Commission, from its fortieth (1988) to its forty-eighth (1996) sessions, received eight reports from Mr. Gaetano Arangio-Ruiz.⁸
