Fifty-third session

Item 113 (a) of the provisional agenda*

Human rights questions: implementation of human rights instruments

Status of the Convention against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment

Report of the Secretary-General

1. The General Assembly, by its resolution 39/46 of 10 December 1984, adopted and opened for signature, ratification and accession the Convention against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment contained in the annex to that resolution, and called upon all Governments to consider signing and ratifying the Convention as a matter of priority.

2. The Convention was opened for signature in New York on 4 February 1985. In accordance with article 27 thereof, the Convention entered into force on 26 June 1987, on the thirtieth day after the date of the deposit with the Secretary-General of the twentieth instrument of ratification or accession.

3. In its resolution 51/86 of 12 December 1996, the General Assembly welcomed the report of the Committee against Torture;<sup>1</sup> urged all States that had not yet done so to become parties to the Convention as a matter of priority; invited all States ratifying or acceding to the Convention and those States that were parties to the Convention and that had not yet done so to consider joining the States parties that had already made the declarations provided for in articles 21 and 22 of the Convention and to consider the possibility of withdrawing their reservations to articles 20; urged States parties to comply strictly with their obligations under the Convention, including their obligation to submit reports in accordance with article 19 of the Convention, in view of the high number of reports not submitted; stressed the need for regular exchanges of views between the Committee against Torture, the Special Rapporteur on Torture and other relevant United Nations mechanisms and bodies, with a view to enhancing further their effectiveness and cooperation on issues relating to torture, inter alia, by improving their coordination; commended the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights/Centre for Human Rights of the Secretariat for the support given to States in the preparation of national reports to the Committee; urged States parties to take fully into account the conclusions and recommendations made by the Committee after its consideration of their reports; urged all States parties to the Convention to notify the Secretary-General of their acceptance of the amendments to articles 17 and 18 of the Convention as soon as possible;<sup>2</sup> and requested the Secretary-General to submit to the General Assembly at its fifty-third session a report on the status of the Convention.

4. The Commission on Human Rights, at its fifty-fourth session, on 17 April 1998 adopted resolution 1998/38, in which it called upon all Governments to implement fully the prohibition of torture and other cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment; urged all Governments to promote the speedy and full implementation of the Vienna Declaration and Programme of Action (A/CONF.157/23) and, in particular, of Part II, section B.5, relating to freedom from torture, in which it is stated that States should abrogate legislation leading to impunity for those responsible for grave violations of human rights such as torture and prosecute such violations, thereby providing a firm basis for the rule of law; reminded Governments that corporal punishment could amount to cruel, inhuman or degrading punishment or even to torture; stressed in particular that all allegations of torture or cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment should be promptly and impartially examined by the competent national authority, that those who encouraged, ordered, tolerated or perpetrated such acts must be held responsible and severely punished, including the officials in charge of the place of detention where the prohibited act was found to have taken place, and that national legal systems should ensure that the victims of such acts obtained redress and were awarded fair and adequate compensation and received appropriate socio-medical rehabilitation. The Commission also reminded all States that prolonged incommunicado detention might facilitate the perpetration of torture and could in itself constitute a form of cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment; stressed that under article 4 of the Convention against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment acts of torture must be made an offence under domestic criminal law and that acts of torture during armed conflict were considered a grave breach of the Geneva Conventions of 1949, with the perpetrators liable to prosecution and punishment; emphasized the obligation of States parties under article 10 of the Convention to ensure education and training for personnel who might be involved in the custody, interrogation or treatment of any individual subjected to any form of arrest, detention or imprisonment, and called upon the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights, in conformity with her mandate established in General Assembly resolution 48/141 of 20 December 1993, to provide, at the request of Governments, advisory services in that regard, as well as technical assistance in the development, production and distribution of appropriate teaching material for the purpose. The Commission stressed in that context that States must not punish such personnel for not obeying orders to commit acts amounting to torture or other cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment.

5. As at 15 July 1998, the Convention had been ratified or acceded to by 105 States. In addition, 13 States had signed the Convention. The list of States that have signed, ratified or acceded to the Convention, as well as the dates of their signature, ratification or accession, is contained in the annex to the present report.

6. As at the same date, 39 of the States parties to the Convention, namely Algeria, Argentina, Australia, Austria, Bulgaria, Canada, Croatia, Cyprus, the Czech Republic, Denmark, Ecuador, Finland, France, Greece, Hungary, Iceland, Italy, Liechtenstein, Luxembourg, Malta, Monaco, the Netherlands, New Zealand, Norway, Poland, Portugal, the Russian Federation, Senegal, Slovakia, Slovenia, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, Togo, Tunisia, Turkey, Uruguay, Venezuela and Yugoslavia, had made the declarations provided for in articles 21 and 22 of the Convention. In addition, two States parties, namely, the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and the United States of America, had made the declaration provided for in article 21 only, thus bringing the total number of declarations under that article to 41. Under article 21, a State party to the Convention may declare at any time that it recognizes the competence of the Committee against Torture to receive and consider communications to the effect that a State party claims that another State party is not fulfilling its obligations under the Convention. Under article 22, a State party to the Convention may declare at any time that it recognizes the competence of the Committee to receive and consider communications from or on behalf of individuals subject to its jurisdiction who claim to be victims of a violation by a State party of the provisions of the Convention.

7. The provisions of articles 21 and 22 entered into force on 26 June 1987 in accordance with paragraph 2 of article 21 and paragraph 8 of article 22.

8. The sixth meeting of the States parties to the Convention was convened by the Secretary-General at the United Nations Office at Geneva on 26 November 1997 to elect five members of the Committee against Torture to replace those whose terms of office were due to expire on 31 December 1997.
