Fifty-third session

Item 91 of the provisional agenda*

Offers by Member States of study and training facilities for inhabitants of Non-Self-Governing Territories

Offers by Member States of study and training facilities for inhabitants of Non-Self-Governing Territories

Report of the Secretary-General

I. Introduction

1. By General Assembly resolution 845 (IX) of 22 November 1954, Member States were invited to extend to the inhabitants of Non-Self-Governing Territories offers of facilities not only for study and training of university standard, but also for study at the post-primary level, as well as technical and vocational training of immediate practical value.

2. In accordance with General Assembly resolution 1696 (XVI) of 19 December 1961, offers extended under resolution 845 (IX) are communicated by the Secretariat to the administering Powers to enable them to give appropriate publicity to the offers in the Territories under their administration.

3. Information on scholarships offered by Member States under the programme is made available to prospective applicants. Reference to the programme is included in the thirtieth edition of the handbook entitled Study Abroad, published by the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO).

4. Under the terms of General Assembly resolution 845 (IX) and subsequent resolutions,¹ the Secretary-General submits to the Assembly each year a report containing detailed information on the offers made and the extent to which they were utilized.² The present report, which covers the period from 1 October 1997 to 6 August 1998, is submitted in accordance with paragraph 5 of resolution 52/74 of 10 December 1997.

B. Offers and awards

Australia

7. In a note verbale dated 30 July 1998, the Permanent Mission of Australia to the United Nations informed the Secretary-General that the Government of Australia had offered 13 scholarships in 1997/98 to New Caledonia and an additional six scholarships will be offered in 1998/99.

Barbados

8. In a facsimile dated 3 August 1998, the Permanent Representative of Barbados to the United Nations informed the United Nations Secretariat that the Government of Barbados had provided for the admission of nationals from the British dependency of Montserrat to the tertiary institutions of Barbados on the same basis as nationals of Barbados. As a result, persons from Montserrat do not have to pay non-national fees, but instead pay the same fees as Barbadians.

Czech Republic

9. In a note verbale dated 7 August 1998, the Permanent Representative of the Czech Republic to the United Nations informed the Secretary-General that since 1997, the Czech Republic had been providing 10 government scholarships per annum to UNESCO. Through its Fellowship Bank, UNESCO offers the scholarships to least developed countries and some other developing countries. The associated members of UNESCO (Aruba, British Virgin Islands, Macau, Netherlands Antilles) may also apply for the scholarships. Together, more than 30 scholarships have been granted to UNESCO by the Government of the Czech Republic, but none has been acquired by a student from a Non-Self-Governing Territory.

New Zealand

10. In a facsimile dated 27 July 1998, the Permanent Representative of New Zealand to the United Nations informed the Secretary-General that under the New Zealand Official Development Assistance Study Award Scheme, New Zealand in 1998 awarded 10 scholarships (7 at the secondary level and 3 at the tertiary level) to students from the Non-Self-Governing Territory of Tokelau. In addition, seven training awards were given to students from New Caledonia.

Singapore

11. In a note verbale dated 31 July 1998, the Permanent Representative of Singapore to the United Nations informed the Secretary-General that the Government of Singapore offered short-term training programmes and study visits for government officials from developing countries, including Non-Self-Governing Territories. In the past five years, 22 officials from seven Non-Self-Governing Territories have attended training courses in Singapore under the Singapore Cooperation Programme. Details on the number of participants from each Non-Self-Governing Territory is given in the accompanying table.

United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland

12. In a note verbale dated 22 July 1998, the Permanent Representative of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland to the United Nations informed the Secretary-General that during the financial year 1997/98 the United Kingdom had offered 26 scholarships to students from the British Non-Self-Governing Territories, as follows: Anguilla (2); Bermuda (2); British Virgin Islands (1); Cayman Islands (8); Gibraltar (3); Montserrat (9); and Saint Helena (1).

Notes

¹ The most recent resolutions adopted by the General Assembly on this question are resolutions 49/42 of 9 December 1994, 50/35 of 6 December 1995, 51/142 of 13 December 1996 and 52/74 of 10 December 1997.

² For the most recent reports, see A/49/413, A/50/481, A/51/373 and A/52/388.

United States of America

13. In a note verbale dated 6 August 1998, the Permanent Representative of the United States of America to the United Nations confirmed that the United States supported the provision of scholarships to students through contributions to the United Nations Educational and Training Programme for Southern Africa and the United Nations Fellowship Programme. In addition, other United States government and private agencies provided scholarships to foreign students, some of whom were from Non-Self-Governing Territories. Citizens of the territories administered by the United States, as United States nationals, are eligible for the same educational benefits and opportunities available to those in the rest of the United States.

III. Applications made through the United Nations

14. In accordance with the procedure established by the General Assembly in its resolution 1696 (XVI), applications for scholarships received by the United Nations Secretariat from inhabitants of Non-Self-Governing Territories are transmitted simultaneously to the offering States for consideration and to the administering Powers for information.

15. Between 24 September 1997 and 31 July 1998, the Secretariat received requests from 17 students for information on the availability of scholarships. None of those students were inhabitants of Non-Self-Governing Territories.
