Study on the relationship between disarmament and development

The General Assembly,

Recalling paragraph 94 of the Final Document of the Tenth Special Session of the General Assembly, contained in resolution S-10/2 of 30 June 1978, in which it decided to undertake a study on the relationship between disarmament and development and requested the Secretary-General to carry out the study with the assistance of a group of qualified governmental experts,

Having examined the report of the Secretary-General containing the study, 1/

1. Welcomes with satisfaction the report of the Secretary-General and the study contained therein;
2. Extends its thanks to the Secretary-General and to the governmental experts, as well as to the Governments, international organizations and non-governmental organizations that have rendered assistance in the preparation of the report;
3. Commends the report, its conclusions and recommendations to the attention of all Member States;

* Reissued for technical reasons.

1/ A/36/356.

4. Requests the Secretary-General to make the necessary arrangements for the reproduction of the report as a United Nations publication and to give it the widest possible distribution;

5. Invites all Member States to inform the Secretary-General, no later than 15 April 1982, of their views regarding the report and, in particular, its recommendations;

6. Decides to transmit the report to the General Assembly at its second special session devoted to disarmament for its substantive consideration and appropriate action;

7. Requests the Secretary-General to transmit the report to the Committee on Disarmament and recommends that it be taken into account in future disarmament negotiations;

8. Takes note with appreciation that arrangements have been made for the preparation of a short version of the report aiming at a mass audience;

9. Recommends to all Governments the widest possible distribution of the report, including, where appropriate, its translation into the respective national languages, so as to acquaint the public opinion in their countries with its content, and invites specialized agencies, national and non-governmental organizations to use their facilities to make the report widely known.
