Expresses its appreciation to the Governments and non-governmental organizations which have supported and continue to support Rwanda in the area of human rights, and to the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights, and requests her to support the Government of Rwanda in the following priority areas:

“(a) Training national human rights monitors;

“(c) Providing the National Human Rights Commission with the necessary financial and technical assistance;

“(d) Initiating a human rights public-awareness campaign using media resources;

“(e) Establishing a national centre for human rights as an information clearing house and training centre;⁴

Recalling the observation made by the Special Rapporteur that the absence of respect for the rights pertaining to democratic governance is at the root of all the major violations of human rights in Myanmar,

1. Expresses its appreciation to the Special Rapporteur of the Commission on Human Rights on the situation of human rights in Myanmar for his interim report;⁶⁵
