III. Recommendations of the Fifth Committee

18. The Fifth Committee recommends to the General Assembly the adoption of the following draft resolutions:

Draft resolution I

Results-based budgeting

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 52/12 B of 19 December 1997 entitled “Renewing the United Nations: a programme for reform”,

Having considered the report of the Secretary-General on results-based budgeting<sup>2</sup> and the related report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions,<sup>3</sup>

1. Reaffirms its resolution 41/213 of 19 December 1986;
2. Reaffirms the Regulations and Rules Governing Programme Planning, the Programme Aspects of the Budget, the Monitoring of Implementation and the Methods of Evaluation, and the Financial Regulations and Rules of the United Nations, in particular financial regulation 4.5;
3. Reaffirms rule 153 of its rules of procedure;
4. Reaffirms also paragraph 21 of its resolution 51/221 B of 18 December 1996, in which it decided that no changes to the budget methodology, to established budgetary procedures and practices or to the financial regulations could be implemented without prior review and approval by the General Assembly, through the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions in accordance with agreed budgetary procedures;

5. Stresses that any proposal to be considered by the General Assembly on results-based budgeting should:

- (a) Address the needs and reflect the characteristics of the United Nations;
- (b) Not be a budget-reduction exercise;
- (c) Not be a staff-reduction exercise;

6. Decides that the proposed programme budget for the biennium 2000–2001 should be prepared and submitted for its consideration in accordance with existing budgetary procedures and processes;

7. Requests the Secretary-General to submit to the General Assembly, through the Advisory Committee, the prototype fascicles, as recommended by the Advisory Committee in paragraph 4 of its report;<sup>4</sup>

8. Further requests the Secretary-General to submit to it, for consideration at its fifty-fourth session, through the Advisory Committee, a comprehensive and analytical report on his proposal on results-based budgeting, which should include, inter alia, the following elements:

- (a) A comparative study of the present budgetary procedures and the proposed results-based budgeting, which should, inter alia, show very clearly the differences and similarities between the two;
- (b) Justification for the proposed change from the present budgetary arrangements to results-based budgeting;
- (c) Identification of weaknesses in the present budgetary procedures and in the Administration that hinder their implementation;
- (d) Identification of measures needed to improve the current budgetary procedures;
- (e) An indication of the regulations, procedures and information systems that should be in place if the proposal on results-based budgeting is approved by the General Assembly;
- (f) Demonstration of the applicability of the concepts of results-based budgeting, including “expected results” and “performance indicators”, for all sections of the programme budget of the United Nations;
- (g) A sharper and clearer definition of the terms “objective”, “output”, “results”, “performance indicator” and “performance measurement”;

9. Emphasizes that Member States should continue to be fully involved, as at present, in the budgetary process, in accordance with existing United Nations regulations, rules and budgetary procedures;

10. Decides that, until the General Assembly decides otherwise, detailed information on posts and non-post requirements should continue to be provided to the General Assembly and the Advisory Committee to enable them to take appropriate and informed decisions on the budget proposals;

11. Requests the Joint Inspection Unit to undertake an analytical and comparative study of the experience of the bodies of the United Nations system that are implementing an approach similar to results-based budgeting and to submit its report no later than 31 August 1999;

12. Requests the Advisory Committee, when preparing its report on the proposed results-based budgeting, to take into account the report referred to in paragraph 11 above;

13. Recognizes the international, multilateral character of the Organization and emphasizes that quantitative expected results should not be the sole basis for justification of resource requirements;

14. Stresses the role of Member States in carrying out a thorough analysis of resource allocation to all sections of the programme budget;

15. Requests the Secretary-General, in the context of the above-mentioned comprehensive and analytical report, to take into account the provisions of the present resolution.

Draft resolution II

Proposed programme budget outline for the biennium 2000–2001

The General Assembly,

Reaffirming its resolution 41/213 of 19 December 1986, in which it, inter alia, requested the Secretary-General to submit in off-budget years an outline of the proposed programme budget for the following biennium,

Also reaffirming part VI of its resolution 45/248 B of 21 December 1990,

Further reaffirming rule 153 of its rules of procedure,

Having considered the report of the Secretary-General on the proposed programme budget outline for the biennium 2000–2001,<sup>5</sup> the related recommendations of the Committee for Programme and Coordination<sup>6</sup> and the recommendations of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions,<sup>7</sup>

Having also considered the report of the Secretary-General on issues related to additional expenditures, including those relating to the maintenance of peace and security, inflation and currency fluctuation,<sup>8</sup> and the related report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions,<sup>9</sup>

1. Takes note of the report of the Committee for Programme and Coordination<sup>10</sup> and the report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions;<sup>11</sup>

2. Reaffirms that the outline of the proposed programme budget shall contain an indication of:

(a) A preliminary estimate of resources to accommodate the proposed programme of activities during the biennium;

<sup>11</sup> A/53/718 and Corr.1.

- (b) Priorities reflecting general trends of a broad sectoral nature;
- (c) Real growth, positive or negative, compared with the previous budget;
- (d) The size of the contingency fund expressed as a percentage of the overall level of resources;

3. Also reaffirms that the outline should provide a greater level of predictability of resources required for the following biennium, promote a greater involvement of Member States in the budgetary process and thereby facilitate the broadest possible agreement on the programme budget;

4. Notes that the budget outline is a preliminary estimate of resources;

5. Reaffirms that the budget proposals of the Secretary-General should reflect resource levels commensurate with the mandates for their full, efficient and effective implementation;

6. Emphasizes the need for Member States to provide adequate resources for the full implementation of all mandated programmes and activities;

7. Decides that the anticipated reduction of 19.8 million United States dollars related to compensating economies should not be included in the budget outline for the biennium 2000–2001;

8. Recognizes, furthermore, that efforts to achieve efficient utilization of resources constitute an ongoing process and should not adversely affect the implementation of mandated programmes and activities;

9. Endorses the proposal of the Secretary-General in his report on additional expenditures<sup>12</sup> and the related recommendations of the Advisory Committee in its report,<sup>13</sup> that provision should be made in the budget outline for expenditures for special political missions related to peace and security expected to be extended or approved during the course of the biennium;

10. Decides that the preliminary estimate of resources for the proposed programme budget for the biennium 2000–2001 should therefore include a provision for special political missions, in the amount of 86.2 million dollars at revised 1998–1999 rates, which should be reflected in the proposed programme budget for the biennium 2000–2001, and that additional requirements shall continue to be treated in accordance with the provisions of General Assembly resolution 41/213;

11. Invites the Secretary-General to prepare his proposed programme budget for the biennium 2000–2001 on the basis of a total preliminary estimate of 2,545 million dollars at revised 1998–1999 rates;

12. Decides that the proposed programme budget for the biennium 2000–2001 shall contain provisions for recosting on the basis of the existing methodology;

13. Reiterates that the priorities for the biennium 2000–2001 as determined by the General Assembly in its resolution 51/219 of 18 December 1996 are the following:

- (a) Maintenance of international peace and security;
- (b) Promotion of sustained economic growth and sustainable development, in accordance with relevant General Assembly resolutions and recent United Nations conferences;

- (c) Development of Africa;
- (d) Promotion of human rights;
- (e) Effective coordination of humanitarian assistance efforts;
- (f) Promotion of justice and international law;
- (g) Disarmament;
- (h) Drug control, crime prevention and combating international terrorism in all its forms and manifestations;

14. Reiterates its request to the Secretary-General, in the proposed programme budget for the biennium 2000–2001, to submit the total amount of resources that he should have at his disposal, from all sources of financing, in order to implement fully all mandated programmes and activities;

15. Decides that the contingency fund shall be set at the level of 0.75 per cent of the preliminary estimate, namely at 19.1 million dollars, and that this amount is in addition to the overall level of the preliminary estimate and is to be used in accordance with the procedures for the use and operation of the contingency fund.

19. The Committee also recommends to the General Assembly the adoption of the following draft decisions:

Draft decision I

Revolving credit fund

The General Assembly takes note of the report of the Secretary-General on a revolving credit fund<sup>14</sup> and the observations of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions thereon,<sup>15</sup> and decides to resume consideration of the question of the revolving credit fund at its fifty-fourth session.

Draft decision II
