Twenty-sixth meeting of the Presiding Officers of the Regional Conference on Women in Latin America and the Caribbean

Santiago, Chile, 13-14 July 1998

ANNOTATIONS TO THE PROVISIONAL AGENDA

1. Adoption of the agenda

Delegations will have the provisional agenda before them, for consideration and adoption with whatever modifications they may deem appropriate.

2. Progress report by the Chairperson, in particular regarding the implementation of the resolution adopted by the Regional Conference at its seventh session on activities in follow-up to the Regional Programme of Action for the Women of Latin America and the Caribbean

Pursuant to the resolution adopted by the Regional Conference at its seventh session on activities in follow-up to the Regional Programme of Action for the Women of Latin America and the Caribbean, 1995-2001, the Chairperson of the Presiding Officers participated, as a member of the delegation of Chile, at the twenty-seventh session of the Economic Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean (ECLAC) (Aruba, 11-16 May 1998). On that occasion, the Chairperson presented the Santiago Consensus and outlined the work of the Presiding Officers.

- Statement by the Minister-Director of the National Women's Service of Chile (SERNAM), Ms. María Josefina Bilbao, at the twenty-seventh session of ECLAC

- Draft report of the twenty-seventh session of ECLAC

3. Follow-up to United Nations world conferences and summits and their provisions regarding the mainstreaming of the gender perspective

The secretariat will prepare a set of reference documents concerning agreements on gender and the advancement of women adopted at United Nations world conferences and summits, particularly at the United Nations Conference on Environment and Development, the World Conference on Human Rights, the International Conference on Population and Development, the World Summit for Social Development and the United Nations Conference on Human Settlements (Habitat II). The Government of Chile, through an official from the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, will present a document on follow-up to those agreements, prepared by the Director of the Office for Multilateral Policy of the Ministry. This input will serve as the basis for discussion.

5. Review of follow-up to the Regional Programme of Action, in particular in strategic areas not considered at the seventh session of the Regional Conference

Since the debates at the seventh session of the Regional Conference focused on issues relating to power and decision-making and to poverty, the Presiding Officers will analyse the other six strategic areas of the Regional Programme of Action, namely:

- Area I: Gender equity
- Area II: Economic and social development with a gender perspective: women's equitable share in the decisions, responsibilities and benefits of development
- Area V: Human rights, peace and development
- Area VI: Shared family responsibilities
- Area VII: Recognition of cultural plurality in the region
- Area VIII: International support and cooperation

7. Planned activities of the Presiding Officers and of the ECLAC secretariat

The Presiding Officers will select the issues to which they wish to devote their efforts for the rest of their mandates, bearing in mind the results of the recent session of the Commission on the Status of Women and the outcome of discussions during the meeting.

Consideration will be given to the offer by the Government of Peru to act as host country for the eighth Regional Conference, to be held in the year 2000.

8. Other matters

The countries represented may raise other matters of interest to them.
