NOTE BY THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

At the 93rd plenary meeting of its thirty-sixth session, on 10 December 1981, the General Assembly adopted resolution 36/121 entitled "Question of Namibia". <sup>1/</sup> In paragraphs 33 and 34 of resolution 36/121 A, the General Assembly:

"33. Strongly urges the Security Council to act decisively against any dilatory manoeuvres and fraudulent schemes of the illegal occupation régime aimed at frustrating the legitimate struggle of the Namibian people, under the leadership of the South West Africa People's Organization, for self-determination and national liberation, as well as at negating the achievements of their just struggle;

"34. Strongly urges the Security Council, in the light of the serious threat to international peace and security posed by South Africa, to respond positively to the overwhelming demand of the international community by immediately imposing against that country comprehensive mandatory sanctions, as provided for in Chapter VII of the Charter of the United Nations."
