NOTE BY THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

At the 91st plenary meeting of its thirty-sixth session, on 9 December 1981, the General Assembly adopted resolution 36/102, entitled "Implementation of the Declaration on the Strengthening of International Security". ^{1/} In paragraphs 5, 7, 8 and 11 of that resolution, the General Assembly:

"5. Urges all States, in particular the permanent members of the Security Council, to take all necessary measures to prevent the further aggravation of the international situation and disruption of the process of détente and, to this end:

"(a) To seek the peaceful settlement of disputes and the resolution of the focal points of crises and tensions;

"(b) To start serious, meaningful and effective negotiations on disarmament and on the halting of the arms race, particularly the nuclear-arms race, on the basis of the recommendation of the General Assembly at its tenth special session;

"(c) To contribute to an urgent solution of international economic problems and the establishment of the new international economic order;

"(d) To accelerate the economic development of developing countries, particularly the least developed ones;

"(e) To proceed without any delay to a global consideration of ways and means for a revival of the world economy and for the restructuring of international economic relations within the framework of the global negotiations;

"7. Requests the Security Council to consider ways and means to ensure the implementation of the provisions of paragraph 5 above as well as to examine all existing mechanisms and to propose new ones aimed at enhancing the authority and enforcement capacity of the Council in accordance with the Charter, and to explore also the possibility of holding periodic meetings of the Council, in conformity with Article 28 of the Charter, at the ministerial or higher level in specific cases, so as to enable it to play a more active role in preventing potential conflicts, and to present the Council's conclusions to the General Assembly at its thirty-seventh session;

"8. Reiterates the need for the Security Council, particularly its permanent members, to ensure the effective implementation of its own decisions in compliance with the relevant provisions of the Charter of the United Nations;

"11. Calls upon the Security Council to take appropriate effective measures to promote the fulfilment of the objectives of the denuclearization of Africa in order to avert the serious danger which the nuclear capability of South Africa constitutes to the African States, in particular the front-line States, as well as to international peace and security".
