Union des Populations du Cameroun (Branch of the Rassemblement démocratique africain)
P.O. Box 33, Eséka.

The indigenous population of Nsimékélé, seventy members of which met on 27 March 1955, has the honour to submit to you the following petition.

Having learned that legal proceedings are being taken at Douala against Fozoo Ekabe, editor of the newspaper Etoile, the organ of the UPC, and against Kingue Abel and Ngom Jacques, Vice-Chairman and member of the Executive Committee of the UPC respectively, following the publication in the Etoile of a press release signed by the latter which denounced the persecution and the experiences to which we are still being subjected in most parts of the country, and plainly voiced the complaints of the mass of the people regarding the growing reign of terror in the Cameroons, which we have seen everywhere; having been informed that the political bureau of the UPC, for reasons not stated by the French authorities, is being unjustly persecuted by the judicial authorities;

Considering that on 5 March 1955, when Mr. Ruben Um Nyobe arrived at the Douala airport, he was served with a summons issued by Mr. Georges Gan, the Examining Magistrate, ordering him to appear on 7 March 1955 at 5 p.m., at the

Douala Law Courts and that at Yaoundé, on 17 March 1955, he was served with another summons issued by the Examining Magistrate of the second chamber of Yaoundé;

The meeting strongly protests against the policy of judicial repression being applied in the Cameroons in order to defeat the independence movement which, in accordance with the Charters of the United Nations, is fighting against colonialism in our country:

Condemns the policy of force and imprisonment restricting the rights and freedoms proclaimed in the Declaration of Human Rights, and declines all responsibility for the consequences; draws international attention to the bloody acts of repression committed by the French authorities against peaceful Cameroonian citizens fighting for the national independence of their country;

Calls upon the Cameroonians to reorganize and unite and to advance firmly forward towards unification and independence, and, by legitimate protests and mass action to thwart the campaign of force begun by the High Commissioner Rolland Pré;

Reaffirms its confidence in the political bureau of the Uni Cameroun and demands the abandonment of the legal proceedings instituted by devious methods against the leaders of the national independence movements, and the unconditional release of our comrades Eatuid Panhu, Sende Amos and others, illegally imprisoned at Eséka.

Done at Nsimékélé, on 27 March 1955
