When the Trusteeship Council came to Bardera people were forbidden to see them, by order of Provincial Commissioner Troise and Resident Surdo Natalino. 50 policemen and 25 Ilalos sent away 2000 people who wanted to greet the Trusteeship Council, and for that purpose had come from the other side of the river. They were sent away by 50 policemen and 25 Ilalos, in accordance with instructions given by the Resident Surdo Natalino and by order of the Provincial Commissioner Troise Francesco, and so Merehan tribesmen living in the Bardera Territory had to leave without seeing the Trusteeship Council.
