Efforts continue in the Syrian Arab Republic to resolve the conflict by non-military means and provide comprehensive assistance to the Syrian people in restoring peace.

The Centre for Reconciliation of Opposing Sides has not carried out any humanitarian operations in the past 24 hours.

Since 30 September 2015, a total of 695,705 people have returned to the Syrian Arab Republic from other countries and 1,304,922 internally displaced persons have returned to their pre-war abodes.

Assistance continues to be provided to rebuild infrastructure and create conditions conducive to the return of refugees.

As at 15 November 2019, a total of 917 educational institutions, 214 medical centres and 32,651 houses have been rebuilt and 1,104.2 km of roads have been repaired.

The Russian Federation is continuing its efforts to implement the provisions of the Russian-Turkish memorandum of understanding, which was adopted on 22 October 2019.

Russian military police units continued their patrols along the Ayn Isa–Mushrafat–Samran, Ayn Isa–Ruhayyat, Ajami–Usgakli and Ajami–Manbij routes in Aleppo Governorate and the Shayrak–Dayli–Qaramaniyah route in Hasakah Governorate. Army aircraft conducted aerial reconnaissance of the area between Kuwayris and Mitras aerodromes.

Illegal armed groups active in the Idlib de-escalation area continue to violate the ceasefire regime.

In the past 24 hours alone, there have been a total of 30 incidents of gunfire. Militants of illegal armed groups fired on Binyamin, Aleppo, Sabiqiyah and Makanis al-Duwayri in Aleppo Governorate; on Jayqurjiq, Jubb al-Maghara, Mamuhiyah and Safsafah in Ladhqiyyah Governorate; on Huwayz in Hama Governorate; and on Salihiyah, Khan Shaykhun, Tamani'ah, Umm al-Rajim, Habit, Zaytunah, Wasitah, Tall Kalbah, Muqah and Tall al-Turki in Idlib Governorate.

The Centre for Reconciliation of Opposing Sides calls on the commanders of illegal armed groups to cease their armed provocations and move to peacefully resolve the situation in the areas under their control.
