- 4. Rule 6 of the provisional rules of procedure (A/CONF.100/2) provides that the Conference shall elect a President and rule 40 provides that elections shall be held by secret ballot, unless the Conference decides otherwise.
- 5. At special conferences held away from established United Nations headquarters, it has been the practice to elect the head of the delegation of the host country as President. This is normally done by acclamation and the requirement of a secret ballot is dispensed with.

- 3. Adoption of the rules of procedure (item 3 (a) of the provisional agenda for the Conference)
- 6. The Preparatory Committee for the Conference, at its third session, recommended the adoption of the provisional rules of procedure contained in document A/CONF.100/2.

- 5. Allocation of items to the Main Committees and organization of work of the Conference
- 8. The Preparatory Committee (decision 2(IV)) recommended to the Conference that item 5 of the provisional agenda for the Conference (see A/CONF.100/1), entitled "Consideration and adoption of the programme of action", should be allocated to the two Main Committees established under rule 42 of the provisional rules of procedure of the Conference, as follows:
- (a) The First Committee should consider issues dealt with in the introduction and chapters I, II, III and V (B) and (C) of the preliminary draft programme of action (A/CONF.100/PC/51 and Add.2):
- (b) The Second Committee should consider issues dealt with in chapters IV (A) and (B) and V (A) of the preliminary draft programme of action (A/CONF.100/PC/51/Add.1 and 2).
- 9. It is recalled in this connexion that the Preparatory Committee decided to resume its fourth session at Nairobi from 3 to 5 August 1981, in order to consider further the draft programme of action with a view to submitting an agreed text of the draft programme to the Conference. During the pre-Conference consultations, a tentative timetable for the work of the Conference will be circulated, taking into account, as necessary, the decisions taken by the Preparatory Committee at its resumed fourth session.

- 12. Under rule 40, elections are to be held by secret ballot, unless the Conference decides otherwise in an election where the number of candidates does not exceed the number of elective places to be filled. In accordance with past practice, the pre-Conference meetings may wish to recommend that, if there is an agreed slate of candidates equal to the number of positions to be filled, all officers of the Conference should be elected by acclamation, thus dispensing with the requirement of a secret ballot.
- 13. With regard to the composition and distribution of seats on the General Committee, the attention of representatives is drawn to the decision taken by the Preparatory Committee at the first part of its fourth session (decision 2 (IV)) whereby it authorized its Chairman to consult with the chairmen of the regional groups with a view to resolving the outstanding questions relating to the General Committee of the Conference, having due regard to the principle of equitable geographical representation on that Committee and to the practice of special United Nations conferences with regard to the distribution of the major posts of the Conference, and to report thereon to the Preparatory Committee at its resumed fourth session. Information regarding the recommendation to be made by the Preparatory Committee on the this matter at its resumed fourth session will be circulated in an addendum to this document.

- 15. The pre-Conference meetings may wish to make a recommendation to the Conference on the composition of the Credentials Committee in the light of rule 4, and on the actual participation of States in the Conference.
- 8. Adoption of the report of the Conference (item 6 of the provisional agenda for the Conference)

17. It has been the practice of previous conferences to request each regional group to designate, before the opening of the Conference, two persons to serve as "friends of the Rapporteur-General" to assist the latter in preparing the draft report of the Conference. The pre-Conference meetings may wish to recommend that the Conference should follow that practice.

9. Officers to be elected by the Main Committees

- 18. In addition to the above questions connected with items of the provisional agenda for the Conference, the pre-Conference meeting may wish to make recommendations concerning the officers to be elected by the Main Committees, in order to facilitate the organization of the work of the Committees, which are expected to hold their first meetings on Tuesday, 11 August, in the afternoon.
- 19. Rule 6 of the provisional rules of procedure provides for the election by the Main Committees of three Vice-Chairmen and a Rapporteur. At previous United Nations conferences of this nature, each regional group was represented on the bureaux of the Main Committees. As indicated in paragraph 12 above, if there is an agreed slate of candidates equal to the number of positions to be filled the officers of the Committees may be elected by acclamation, thus dispensing with the requirement of a secret ballot.
