

Fourteenth session
FIFTH COMMITTEE
Agenda item 45(e)

APPOINTMENTS TO FILL VACANCIES IN THE MEMBERSHIP
OF SUBSIDIARY BODIES OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

UNITED NATIONS ADMINISTRATIVE TRIBUNAL

Note by the Secretariat

I. Vacancies arising from the expiration of the terms of office of two members of the Administrative Tribunal

As indicated in document A/4127, there will be two regular vacancies in the membership of the Administrative Tribunal as a result of the expiration, on 31 December 1959, of the terms of office of the Right Honourable Lord Crook (United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland) and Mr. Harold Riegelman (United States of America). The following persons have been proposed for appointment in respect of those vacancies:

Mr. James J. Casey (United States of America)

Born San Francisco, California, 2 February 1951; Columbia University, A.B. 1937 and LL.B. 1940; admitted to New York State Bar 1941; member, firm Casey, Lane and Mittendorf, New York City; member, Association of the Bar of the City of New York; New York State Bar (member International Law Committee); American Bar Association (member Section International and Comparative Law); American Foreign Law Association; Inter-American Bar Association; International Bar Association; Colegio de Abogados Bogota (Honorary Member); Chairman, Peapack-Gladstone Board of Adjustment (New Jersey).

The Right Honourable Lord Crook (United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland)

Born, Carshalton, England. Member of the Administrative Tribunal since 1951. Appointed by the Government in 1951 as Chairman of the National Dock Labour Board (responsible under Act of Parliament for the organization of dock labour in the eighty-three ports of Great Britain and the employment and conditions of the 80,000 dock workers); re-appointed to that office in each succeeding year; Chairman, 1951 to date, of the National Dock Labour Pensions Fund Trustees and Company; a Justice of the Peace; a member of the Civil Service National Whitley Council for the Administrative Staffs of the Civil Service of Great Britain, from 1925 to 1951; is a pioneer of and lecturer on the Whitley system of staff relationships and Civil Service administrative questions; from 1925 to 1951, General Secretary of the Ministry of Labour Staff Association; and from 1929 to 1951, editor of the Civil Service Argus; experience in British local Government Service; Honorary Secretary, Labour Parliamentary Association, 1945-1947; Chairman or member of a number of fact-finding committees and committees of inquiry; elevated to the Peerage in 1947 for public and political services; a Knight of the Venerable Order of St. John of Jerusalem, 1955; a Deputy Chairman of Committees of the House of Lords; a Liveryman of the City of London; a member of the United Kingdom delegation to the fifth session of the General Assembly, representative on the Fifth Committee and its special sub-Committee on the regrading and salaries of the Secretariat).

II. Vacancy arising from the resignation of a member of the Administrative Tribunal

As indicated in document A/4127/Add.1, a vacancy for the period 1 October 1959 to 31 December 1959 has arisen in the membership of the Administrative Tribunal as a result of the resignation of Mr. Harold Riegelman (United States of America). Mr. James J. Casey, whose biographical notes appear above, has been proposed for appointment to that vacancy.
