

Fourteenth session
FIFTH COMMITTEE
Agenda item 49

ADMINISTRATIVE AND BUDGETARY CO-ORDINATION BETWEEN THE UNITED NATIONS AND THE SPECIALIZED AGENCIES

Argentina, Japan, Netherlands, United States of America:
draft resolution

The General Assembly,

Having regard to reports in recent years by the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions on the subject of administrative and budgetary co-ordination within the United Nations family of organizations and programmes, and to the desirability of having further attention given by the Advisory Committee to such matters,

A

1. Expresses its appreciation to the Advisory Committee for its reports, in particular the report on the Administrative Budgets of the specialized agencies for 1960 (A/4257) and the over-all report on the special studies made by the Committee at the headquarters of the agencies (A/4172);

2. Extends its appreciation to the specialized agencies and the International Atomic Energy Agency for the co-operation and courtesies offered to the studies and visits of the Advisory Committee;

3. Invites the attention of the International Atomic Energy Agency and the International Telecommunication Union to the reports by the Advisory Committee on its special studies at those agencies (A/4135 and A/4148 and Corr.1);

4. Invites also the attention of all specialized agencies and the International Atomic Energy Agency to the over-all report by the Advisory Committee (A/4172) and the report on 1960 budgets of the agencies (A/4257);

5. Requests the Advisory Committee to keep under review the growth and developments in respect of offices, operations, and conferences of the United Nations and the agencies at locations away from their headquarters, and to report on possibilities of further administrative and budgetary co-ordination.

1. Authorizes the Advisory Committee to examine and report on co-ordination and on administrative and budgetary matters of special programmes of the United Nations at the request of the various organs, committees, or commissions concerned.

2. Authorizes the Advisory Committee also, in fulfilment of its functions under Rule 158 of the Rules of Procedure of the General Assembly, to meet as it deems necessary and appropriate, at the various offices of the United Nations and at the headquarters of the specialized agencies, and the International Atomic Energy Agency and, at the request of those agencies, to advise them on administrative and financial matters.
