BUDGET ESTIMATES FOR THE FINANCIAL YEAR 1957

United Nations International School

India, Peru, Uruguay: draft resolution

The General Assembly,

Having considered the Secretary-General's report on the United Nations International School;

Noting with satisfaction the improvement in the situation of the School, whereby it is not in need of budgetary assistance from the United Nations this year; and

Recognizing the continued functioning of the United Nations International School as one of the important non-financial factors contributing to the recruitment and retention of international staff;

Endorses the view that suitable buildings in a convenient location are urgently needed by the United Nations International School; and Requests the Secretary-General to present his proposed study of the suggestions of the Board of Trustees of the School to the twelfth session of the General Assembly.
