joint draft resolution

The General Assembly,

Taking note of chapter III, section XII, of the Report of the Economic and Social Council (document A/4143),

Recalling resolution 1255 A (XIII) of the General Assembly and resolutions 222 (IX), 542 B II (XVIII), 734, 735, 736 and 737 (XXVIII) of the Economic and Social Council,

Bearing in mind that the year 1959 marks the tenth anniversary of the establishment of the Expanded Programme of Technical Assistance,

Believing that this Programme has an important and urgent role to play in the United Nations efforts for the economic and social development of under-developed countries,

Noting with satisfaction the results achieved by the Programme during its first ten years,

Noting with appreciation that at the Pledging Conference of 8 October 1959 a number of countries expressed their intention to increase their contributions for 1960,

Regretting, however, that the resources presently envisaged for 1960 are not sufficient even to maintain the present level of operations,

1. Commends the Executive Chairman and the members of the Technical Assistance Board for the effective manner in which the Programme is being executed;

2. Takes note of the appraisal made by the Economic and Social Council and its Technical Assistance Committee, together with the Technical Assistance Board and the participating organizations, of administrative arrangements which have the purpose of achieving increased efficiency in the operations of the Programme;

3. Notes also the decision taken by the Council in its resolution 735 (XXVIII) to provide greater flexibility and longer range planning in country programming procedures;

4. Affirms the desirability of continuing to endeavour to make the fullest possible use of all available contributions consistent with the existing principles and procedures of the Programme;

5. Expresses the hope that Governments will continue to support the Expanded Programme of Technical Assistance and will so contribute to the Programme that increasing resources will be available:

- (a) to undertake and execute on a sustained basis the tasks laid upon it;
- (b) to devote urgent attention to the compelling needs of newly independent countries and countries in a similar economic and social condition without prejudice to the possibility of further assistance to other under-developed countries.
