global challenge and an indispensable requirement for sustainable development, its commitment to achieving sustainable development in its three dimensions – economic, social and environmental – in a balanced and integrated manner, and to building upon the achievements of the Millennium Development Goals and seeking to address their unfinished business,

Reaffirming also its resolution 69/313 of 27 July 2015 on the Addis Ababa Action Agenda of the Third International Conference on Financing for Development, which is an integral part of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development, supports and complements it, helps to contextualize its means of implementation targets with concrete policies and actions and reaffirms the strong political commitment to address the challenge of financing and creating an enabling environment at all levels for sustainable development in the spirit of global partnership and solidarity,

Reaffirming further the Paris Agreement<sup>2</sup> and its early entry into force, encouraging all its parties to fully implement the Agreement, and parties to the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change<sup>3</sup> that have not yet done so to deposit their instruments of ratification, acceptance, approval or accession, where appropriate, as soon as possible,

Commending the contributions of South-South cooperation, based on solidarity and cooperation in responding to and recovering from the coronavirus disease (COVID-19) pandemic and its adverse impacts, including through exchanging experiences, best practices and expertise, and through extending support to help countries to respond to, recover from and build back better from the pandemic, and accelerate progress towards the attainment of the Sustainable Development Goals, and recognizing the efforts of relevant United Nations development system entities to facilitate such cooperation and support, in line with national development priorities,

Reiterating the pledge that no one will be left behind, reaffirming the recognition that the dignity of the human person is fundamental, and the wish to see the Goals and targets met for all nations and peoples and for all segments of society, and recommitting to endeavour to reach the furthest behind first,

1. Recalls the convening of the second High-level United Nations Conference on South-South Cooperation in Buenos Aires from 20 to 22 March 2019 and its outcome document,<sup>4</sup> and calls upon the international community to support the full implementation of the outcome document of the second High-level Conference;

2. Takes note of the report of the Secretary-General on the state of South-South cooperation;<sup>5</sup>

3. Reaffirms its support for the High-level Committee on South-South Cooperation, and calls upon the Committee to dedicate its twentieth session, to be held in 2020, to the implementation of the Buenos Aires outcome document of the second High-level United Nations Conference on South-South Cooperation;

4. Encourages the continuation and advancement of South-South cooperation on COVID-19 response and recovery efforts in the pursuit of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development and its Sustainable Development Goals, bearing in mind that South-South cooperation is a complement to, rather than a
