Summary of Stakeholders' submissions on Malawi

Report of the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights

Corrigendum

Paragraph 78 should read

78. Referring to relevant supported recommendations from the previous review,¹¹⁶ JS12 stated that the application of the law and policies relating to gender based violence and violence against women did not adequately address the intersectional nature of violence and discrimination and instead reinforced narrow patriarchal, heteronormative ideas and gender norms. Consequently, services and programmes only catered for heterosexual women who complied with gender norms and expectations.¹¹⁷

¹¹⁶ JS12, para. 8.2, referring to A/HRC/30/5, para. 110.84 (Ghana), para. 110.85 (Iceland) and para. 110.108 (Uruguay).

¹¹⁷ JS12, para. 8.2.
