6. The theme of the seminar is “Charting a dynamic course for decolonization in commencing the Fourth International Decade and in the light of the coronavirus disease (COVID-19) pandemic, through commitment to mandate, collaboration, pragmatism and agility”. The agenda of the seminar is as follows:

1. Role of the Special Committee in devising new strategies and setting new objectives for the advancement of the decolonization agenda:
 - (a) Assessment and review of the actions taken during the Third International Decade;
 - (b) Intensifying cooperation with the administering Powers, the Non-Self-Governing Territories and other stakeholders.
2. Perspectives of the administering Powers, the Non-Self-Governing Territories and other stakeholders:
 - (a) Political developments in the Non-Self-Governing Territories:

- (i) In the Caribbean region;
 - (ii) In the Pacific region;
 - (iii) In other regions;
 - (b) Identifying attainable goals;
 - (c) Ensuring the well-being of the peoples of the Non-Self-Governing Territories and their political, economic, social and educational advancement, particularly in the context of the coronavirus disease (COVID-19) pandemic.¹
3. Role of the United Nations system in providing development assistance to Non-Self-Governing Territories in accordance with relevant United Nations resolutions.
 4. Concrete proposals for the advancement of the decolonization agenda.
