

General Assembly

Seventy-fifth session

37th plenary meeting
Monday, 7 December 2020, 3 p.m.
New York

Official Records

President: Mr. Bozkir (Turkey)

The meeting was called to order at 3.05 p.m.

Reports of the First Committee

The President: The General Assembly will now take up the reports of the First Committee on agenda items 94 to 110, 126 and 142. Before we proceed, I would like to make some opening remarks.

I would like to thank the Chair of the First Committee, Mr. Agustín Santos Maraver, Permanent Representative of Spain to the United Nations, and the other members of the Bureau of the First Committee for successfully completing the First Committee's session. I note that the Committee will act on 71 draft proposals today. The Committee is responsible for developing and sustaining the principles of cooperation and agreements on disarmament and international security. I welcome its efforts to resolve and overcome differences with a view to increasing confidence among our nations and finding common ground in order to enhance global security for us all.

I note that the coronavirus disease pandemic has affected the ability of members of civil society to be physically present in the General Assembly Hall during this session, so that they have been able to watch meetings only via United Nations Web TV and have missed out on the opportunity to engage with Member States in the General Assembly Hall. That being the case, I congratulate the members of the Bureau on their pragmatism and commend them for proceeding with a hybrid working model that has included in-person meetings.

The time available to us for discussing matters of peace and security is limited, and we must make every second count. This year we are also fighting a common enemy that has had a disastrous effect on our global economic and social climate. We must work together in order to overcome the pandemic and the challenges that come with it. I thank Member States for their efforts and wish them all the best in their important endeavours.

I now request the Rapporteur of the First Committee, Ms. María del Rosario Estrada Girón of Guatemala, to introduce the reports of the First Committee in one intervention.

Ms. Estrada Girón (Guatemala), Rapporteur of the First Committee (spoke in Spanish): I have the honour to introduce to the General Assembly the draft resolutions and draft decisions recommended by the Disarmament and International Security Committee, the First Committee, in its reports on agenda items 94 to 110, 126 and 142, as contained in documents A/75/390 to A/75/408. For the convenience of delegations, a list of the proposals contained in the reports of the First Committee has been prepared by the Secretariat and issued as document A/C.1/75/INF/3.

This year was an extraordinary session for the First Committee, given that the constraints of the coronavirus disease (COVID-19) pandemic prevented the Committee from organizing a full-fledged session for the main part of the seventy-fifth session of the General Assembly. The Bureau of the First Committee, ably chaired by Ambassador Agustín Santos Maraver of Spain, engaged in extensive consultations with delegations prior to the session with the aim of formulating a realistic and flexible approach in order to proceed with the work of the Committee in the most inclusive and transparent way possible, while at the same time ensuring the participation of all Member States on an equal footing. To that end, the Committee adopted a number of modalities as a temporary one-time measure in the light of the unique circumstances imposed by the COVID-19 pandemic. As part of the efforts to streamline the work of the Committee, the traditional thematic debates were not held this year. Instead, Member States were encouraged to submit written statements on the thematic clusters for inclusion in a compendium of statements to be issued as an official final document of the Committee. The time limit for statements in explanation of vote and in exercise of the right of reply was also greatly reduced, and States were provided the option of submitting those statements in writing for inclusion in the compendium.

Of the 27 in-person meetings originally scheduled, the Committee held 15, along with three virtual meetings, the first in the First Committee's history. This was one of the Committee's smoothest sessions in many years, and it achieved its goal of making a significant contribution to the General Assembly's activity in the area of disarmament and international security. The Committee now also holds the distinction of having conducted the first-ever voting exercise in United Nations history to successfully use the three combined conference rooms 1, 2 and 3 simultaneously. After holding its organizational meeting on 6 October (see A/C.1/75/PV.1), the First Committee completed its work for the main part of the seventy-fifth session on 10 November, rather than 5 November as originally planned, owing to the cancellation of all in-person meetings during the final week of October for reasons related to COVID-19. The general debate on the 17 substantive agenda items and 54 sub-items allocated to the Committee was convened from 9 to 19 October, and we were honoured to have you, Mr. President, address the Committee at the start of that debate (see A/C.1/75/PV.2). For this session, 143 delegations made statements during the general debate segment, as compared to 132 in 2019. During the action phase, the Committee adopted 71 draft resolutions and decisions, of which 40 were adopted by recorded vote, with 80 separate votes requested. Two draft resolutions were rejected. The Secretariat made oral statements on the financial implications of three draft proposals, as reflected in document A/C.1/75/INF/3, which is before the Assembly today, while five draft proposals resulted in statements on their programme budget implications. In line with past practice, the General Assembly will consider those five draft proposals after their implications have been considered by the Fifth Committee. No proposal was put forward on the agenda item entitled "Reduction of military budgets".

With regard to agenda item 126, entitled "Revitalization of the work of the General Assembly", the draft decision containing the provisional programme of work and timetable of the First Committee for 2021 is contained in document A/75/407.

Before concluding, I would like to point to the high level of cooperation that the First Committee displayed. The Committee was able to fulfil the mandate entrusted to it by the Assembly and to complete its work within the time allotted. On behalf of the Bureau of the Committee, I would like to express our sincere gratitude to all delegations for their constructive participation and flexibility throughout the session. I would like to pay particular tribute to the Chair of the Committee, His Excellency Ambassador Agustín Santos Maraver of Spain, whose knowledge and experience, along with his consummate diplomatic skills, enabled the Committee to complete its work despite the various challenges it faced. The other members of the Bureau, Ms. Corina-Cristina Lefter of Romania, Mr. Ariel Rodelas Penaranda of the Philippines and Mr. Bassem Hassan of Egypt, with whom I had the pleasure of working, also contributed greatly to the successful conclusion of the Committee's work.

Finally, I would like to recognize the dedicated support of Mrs. Izumi Nakamitsu, High Representative for Disarmament Affairs, and the staff of the Office for Disarmament Affairs, as well as the Secretary of the Committee and her team from the Department for General Assembly and Conference Management, the conference officers, interpreters, record keepers, press officers, document officers, sound technicians and information technology staff.

The President: I thank the Rapporteur of the First Committee for her report.

The positions of delegations regarding the recommendations of the First Committee have been made clear in the Committee and are reflected in the relevant official records. If there is no proposal under rule 66 of the rules of procedure, I shall therefore take it that the General Assembly decides not to discuss the reports of the First Committee that are before the Assembly today.

It was so decided.

The President: Statements will therefore be limited to explanations of vote or position. I would like to remind members that in accordance with General Assembly decision 34/401, a delegation should, as far as possible, explain its vote only once, that is, either in the Committee or in plenary meeting, unless that delegation's vote in plenary meeting is different from its vote in the Committee. I also want to remind members that explanations are limited to 10 minutes and should be made by delegations from their seats. When there are multiple proposals under an agenda item, statements in explanation of vote before the voting on any or all of them should be made in one intervention, followed by action being taken on all of them, one by one. Thereafter, there will be an opportunity for statements in explanation of vote or position on any or all of them, in one intervention.

Before we begin to take action on the recommendations contained in the reports of the First Committee, I would like to advise representatives that we will proceed to take decisions in the same manner as was done in the Committee, unless the Secretariat is notified otherwise in advance. This means that where separate or recorded votes were taken, we will do the same. I also hope that we can proceed to adopt without a vote recommendations that were adopted without a vote in the First Committee. The results of the votes will be uploaded under "Plenary Announcements" on the e-deleGATE portal.

I would like to draw the attention of members to a note by the Secretariat, in English only, entitled "List of proposals contained in the reports of the First Committee for consideration by the General Assembly", which has been issued as document A/C.1/75/INF/3. The note has been circulated in advance as a reference guide for action on the draft resolutions and decisions recommended by the First Committee in its reports. Members will find in column 1 of the note the agenda item of the respective issues considered by the Committee; in column 2, the symbols of the Committee's reports issued for action in the plenary; in column 3, the draft resolution or draft decision number in reports containing multiple recommendations; in column 4, the titles and symbols of the draft resolutions and decisions of the Committee; and in column 5, the results of the Committee's action on those drafts.

As members are aware, additional sponsors are no longer accepted now that draft resolutions and decisions have been adopted by the Committee. Any clarification about sponsorship in the Committee reports should be addressed to the Secretary of the Committee. Furthermore, any corrections to the voting intentions of delegations after the voting has concluded on a proposal should be made directly to the Secretariat after the meeting. I would ask for members' cooperation in avoiding any interruptions to our proceedings in that regard.

The President: May I take it that it is the wish of the General Assembly to conclude its consideration of agenda item 101?

It was so decided.

Agenda item 102

Role of science and technology in the context of international security and disarmament

Report of the First Committee (A/75/398)

The President: The Assembly has before it a draft resolution recommended by the First Committee in paragraph 7 of its report.

We will now take a decision on the draft resolution. The First Committee adopted the draft resolution without a vote. May I take it that the Assembly wishes to do the same?

The draft resolution was adopted (resolution 75/38).

The President: May I take it that it is the wish of the General Assembly to conclude its consideration of agenda item 102?

It was so decided.

Agenda item 103

General and complete disarmament

Report of the First Committee (A/75/399)

The President: The Assembly has before it 36 draft resolutions recommended by the First Committee in paragraph 96 of its report, and five draft decisions recommended by the Committee in paragraph 97 of the same report.

Before proceeding further, I would like to inform members that action on draft resolution XXV, entitled "The illicit trade in small arms and light weapons in all its aspects", and draft decision IV, entitled "Problems arising from the accumulation of conventional ammunition stockpiles in surplus", is postponed to a later date to allow time for the review of their programme budget implications by the Fifth Committee. The Assembly will take action on the draft resolution and draft decision as soon as the report of the Fifth Committee on their programme budget implications is available.

The Assembly will now take a decision on draft resolutions I to XXIV and XXVI to XXXVI, as well as draft decisions I to III and V, one by one. After all the decisions have been taken, representatives will again have an opportunity to explain their vote or position on any or all of the draft resolutions and draft decisions. I now invite delegations to turn to paragraph 96 of section III of the report concerning the draft resolutions recommended by the First Committee.

We first turn to draft resolution I, entitled "Humanitarian consequences of nuclear weapons".

Draft resolution I, as a whole, was adopted by 180 votes to none, with 2 abstentions (resolution 75/82).

The President: Draft resolution II is entitled “Report of the Conference on Disarmament”. The First Committee adopted it without a vote. May I take it that the Assembly wishes to do the same?

Draft resolution II was adopted (resolution 75/83).

The President: We now turn to the draft decision, entitled “Disarmament Commission”. The First Committee adopted it without a vote. May I take it that the Assembly wishes to do likewise?

Draft decision I was adopted (decision 75/519).

The President: I now give the floor to the representative of the Russian Federation, who wishes to speak in explanation of position on the decision just adopted.

Ms. Sokolova (Russian Federation) (spoke in Russian): I would like to take this opportunity to recall that during the voting in the First Committee at its meeting on 10 November (see A/C.1/75/PV.15), the Russian Federation dissociated itself from the consensus on decision 75/519, entitled “Disarmament Commission” and submitted by Australia. As we explained in detail in the First Committee, the decision does not eliminate our fundamental concerns about re-establishing the regular work of that disarmament mechanism of the United Nations, particularly with regard to the problem of ensuring the full participation of all delegations in that work. Until that issue is resolved, we do not see that the adoption of any technical decisions, whatever they are, adds any value. It is regrettable that that was not reflected in the report on sub-item (b) of agenda item 105 (A/75/401). We are therefore once again obliged to reiterate our principled position here in the General Assembly Hall and to dissociate ourselves from the consensus on the decision. We expect that our position will be put on the record.

The President: May I take it that it is the wish of the General Assembly to conclude its consideration of agenda item 105?

It was so decided.

Agenda item 106

The risk of nuclear proliferation in the Middle East
