SECURITY COUNCIL PRESIDENT SAYS THERE IS NO AGREEMENT AMONG MEMBERS THAT CONDITIONS EXIST FOR MODIFICATION OF SANCTIONS AGAINST IRAQ

The following statement was issued today by the President of the Security Council, Jose Ayala Lasso (Ecuador), on behalf of the members of the Council, in connection with the item entitled "The situation between Iraq and Kuwait":

The members of the Security Council held informal consultations on 24 September 1992 pursuant to paragraph 21 of resolution 687 (1991).

After hearing all the opinions expressed in the course of the consultations, the President of the Council concluded that there still was no agreement that the necessary conditions existed for a modification of the regime established in paragraph 20 of resolution 687 (1991), as referred to in paragraph 21 of that resolution.
