Asamblea General
Septuagésimo sexto período de sesiones
Tema 44 del programa
Cuestión de Chipre

Consejo de Seguridad
Septuagésimo sexto año

Carta de fecha 29 de octubre de 2021 dirigida al Secretario General por el Representante Permanente de Chipre ante las Naciones Unidas

Siguiendo instrucciones de mi Gobierno, adjunto a la presente carta seis documentos en los que se detallan los casos en que Turquía ha violado el espacio aéreo nacional de Chipre, infringido las normas internacionales de tráfico aéreo en la región de información de vuelo de Chipre y hecho un uso ilegal de los puertos y aeropuertos clausurados de Chipre durante los meses de junio, julio y agosto de 2021 (véanse los anexos I a VI)*.

La aviación civil internacional sigue enfrentándose a una situación en la que uno de los Estados miembros de la Organización de Aviación Civil Internacional (OACI), a saber, Turquía, no respeta disposiciones fundamentales del Convenio sobre Aviación Civil Internacional y sus anexos, lo que conlleva posibles riesgos para la navegación aérea internacional. Turquía sigue acosando sistemáticamente a las aeronaves civiles y militares dentro de la región de información de vuelo de Nicosia con llamadas de radio. Además, dio instrucciones al régimen secesionista que ha instalado en la zona de Chipre al amparo de la ocupación militar ilegal de Turquía para que supuestamente emitiera seis de los llamados “avisos a los aviadores” en relación con maniobras realizadas por la Fuerza Aérea de Turquía.

Estas acciones de Turquía tienen por objeto socavar la soberanía de Chipre, afianzar la actual división de facto de la isla y tratar de elevar el estatus del régimen de ocupación mediante la supuesta existencia de un espacio aéreo separado sobre el territorio ocupado de Chipre. De hecho, forman parte de un patrón sistemático y continuo de vulneraciones ilegales de la soberanía y la integridad territorial de Chipre.

Lamentablemente, y a pesar de los claros mensajes enviados el pasado mes de julio por el Consejo de Seguridad, la conducta agresiva de Turquía y su persistente desprecio por el derecho internacional han alcanzado recientemente nuevas cotas de audacia irresponsable y provocadora:

a) El 3 de octubre de 2021, dos buques de guerra turcos acosaron al buque hidrográfico Nautical Geo, que contaba con la debida autorización de las autoridades competentes de la República de Chipre, e impidió que llevara a cabo un levantamiento de la posible ruta del proyecto de gasoducto EastMed, un plan energético de importancia regional designado como proyecto de interés común por la Unión Europea.

b) El 13 de octubre de 2021, el régimen de ocupación turco inició obras de infraestructura a gran escala en la llamada “zona piloto” de la ciudad cercada de Varosha, haciendo caso omiso del claro llamamiento del Consejo de Seguridad del pasado mes de julio (S/PRST/2021/13) a la parte turca para que detuviera las violaciones del statu quo en Varosha y revirtiera esa línea de acción.

c) El 15 de octubre de 2021, el régimen secesionista de la zona ocupada de Chipre “concedió” a las fuerzas de ocupación turcas 145 kilómetros cuadrados de terreno en la península de Karpas, que legalmente pertenece a los desplazados internos grecochipriotas, aparentemente con el fin de construir una base naval turca. Esta medida, junto con la base turca de aeronaves no tripuladas que ya funciona ilegalmente en la zona ocupada de Chipre, constituiría un paso más en el avance de la agenda desestabilizadora turca hacia la hegemonía militar en el Mediterráneo oriental.

Los actos desestabilizadores de Turquía sobre el terreno van acompañados de una retórica agresiva que suele incluir acusaciones falaces contra los propios objetivos del comportamiento agresivo turco, argumentos falsos contra las resoluciones del Consejo de Seguridad, que Turquía califica de obsoletas simplemente porque no se ajustan al punto de vista turco, y llamamientos a la comunidad internacional para que afronte “las realidades sobre el terreno”.

Es obvio que las llamadas “realidades sobre el terreno” a las que se refiere Turquía son, de hecho, la situación que ha creado en Chipre mediante el uso de la fuerza, en violación del Artículo 2 de la Carta de las Naciones Unidas, y la ocupación militar de un tercio del territorio de la República de Chipre. Turquía exige que la comunidad internacional reconozca cambios que son consecuencia de agresión, siguiendo la doctrina obsoleta del derecho de conquista, y declara abiertamente que seguirá violando las resoluciones del Consejo de Seguridad, con total desprecio del Artículo 25 de la Carta.

El Consejo de Seguridad debe respaldar sus resoluciones y asegurarse de que tengan significado; de lo contrario, se corre el riesgo de socavar la credibilidad del sistema internacional.

A pesar de todos los obstáculos, seguimos comprometidos con una solución basada en una federación bizonal y bicomunal con igualdad política, como se define en varias resoluciones del Consejo de Seguridad. A ese respecto, nos alienta el mensaje de Su Excelencia de persistencia y determinación en los esfuerzos por reanudar las negociaciones oficiales, expresado en sus informes más recientes al Consejo de Seguridad.

Le agradecería que tuviera a bien hacer distribuir la presente carta y sus anexos como documento del septuagésimo sexto período ordinario de sesiones de la Asamblea General, en relación con el tema 44 del programa, y del Consejo de Seguridad.
